Membrane 24—cont.

1344.

abbot next fell void, the prior and convent should have the custody thereof (saving knights' fees and advowsons), for four months from the date of voidance without rendering anything for the same, provided that if the voidance should endure for more than four months then he should be answered for the issues and profits thereof for such further time, for the special affection which he bears to the abbot and convent, who for the causes aforesaid endured great losses and are charged in many ways by advents of him and his household in those parts, he confirms the grant so made as aforesaid.

By K.

Westminster.

The sub-prior and convent of the priory of Luffeld have letters of licence to elect, on news brought to the king of the death of John de Westbury, their prior.

By p.s.

Oct. 18.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's yeoman, Guy de Bryan, of the office of the tronage and pesage in the city of London, during pleasure, notwithstanding any previous grant of the same office by the king to any other, which grant, if such have been made, the king by these presents revokes.

By p.s.

Aug. 31.
Hurstbourne
 İluscboiim

Signification to R. bishop of Salisbury, of the royal assent to the election of Robergia de Popham, a nun of the house of Wilton, in his diocese, to be abbess of the same place.

By p.s.

Oct. 16.
Westminster.

Licence, in consideration of a fine made by Robert de Sylkeston, knight, for the alienation in mortmain by the prior and convent of Malton of 5 marks of rent out of the manors of WyntrYGONt in Lyndesey and Wyloughby by Ancastre to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of the Virgin Mary, in the church of Kirkby by Bolynbrok, for the souls of the said Robert, Adam, his father, Sumeia, his mother, Henry de Lasce, sometime earl of Lincoln, and Margaret, his wife, Alesia, their daughter, William de Nony and the ancestors and benefactors of Robert, according to an ordinance to be made in that behalf.

By fine of 6 marks. Lincoln.

Oct. 18.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's yeoman, Guy de Bryan, to whom the king lately committed the office of the tronage and pesage in London, that inasmuch as he makes continual stay at his side whereby he cannot attend to the office in person, he may discharge the same by a deputy whenever necessary.

By p.s.

Oct. 17.
Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Sibyl de Glaunvyl of the manor of Fossardeston and a messuage in Woutton to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary, in the parish church of Woutton Glaunvylle, for the good estate of the king and her, for their souls when they are dead, and for the souls of Henry de Glaunvyl and the ancestors and heirs of Sibyl.

By fine of 10l. Dorset.

Oct. 1.
Tower of London.

Whereas Henry de Stokbrig acquired estates in fee in a messuage and 2 acres of land in Cawod, held in chief, from Robert Tawell of Cawod, who acquired the same from Thomas son of Nicholas de Cawod, and he from Nicholas de Cawod, and he from John de Cawod; and in 2 acres of land there, likewise held in chief, from John son of Geoffrey de Stokbrig, who acquired the same from Geoffrey son of Reginald de Stokbrig, and he from John de Salleye, and he from John son of William son of Adam le Souter of Cawod, and he from John son of John de Cawod; and in 4 acres of land and an acre of meadow there, likewise held in chief, from the said Robert Tawell who acquired the same from Thomas son of Robert de Estwharrom, and he from Robert de Estwharrom, and he from David son