Melford.

Grant to queen Philippa of the custody of the temporalities pertaining to the abbot of Westminster, which are in the king’s hands on account of the death of the last abbot of that place, to hold with the issues and profits and other appurtenances, during the voidance, saving to the king knights’ fees and advowsons of churches. Cancelled.

Memorandum that Thomas de Clogh, the queen’s attorney, came into the chancery on Saturday after St. Andrew the Apostle and surrendered the letters patent last preceding, asserting that the queen would not intermeddle in the custody, whereby the custody by other letters patent, dated 29 October, the day on which the abbot died as is said, is committed to William de Kelleseye, clerk, as appears on the Fine Roll of this year, and so these letters patent are cancelled.

Nov. 1.
Melford.

Presentation of Robert de Kelleseye to the church of Foghelestone, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Wilton.

Oct. 20.
Westminster.
