Hugh de Norton, staying in England, has letters nominating Roger Darcy, 'chivaler,' and Edmund de Berford as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. Thomas de Cotyngham received the attorneys.

Protection and safe conduct, during pleasure, for John de Jancourt and Hugh de Cheintry, monks of Cluny, at present staying in England to prosecute certain business relating to the priory of Lewes, on account of the prosecution of which they are now threatened by their enemies with great damage to their persons and their goods, and for their men and things: and appointment of Thomas de Bourne and Lambert de Haultepire, king's serjeant at arms, to be attending unto them that they may attend to the said business more securely.

Acquittance to William de Dufort for 14,000 florins of Florence, three florins reckoned as two florins with the shield, wherein he had acknowledged himself to be bound unto the king, received by the hands of John, duke of Brabant.

Memorandum that this letter was delivered to William de Edyngton, the treasurer, by Master John de Thoresby, at Westminster, on 25 October, in this present year, to deliver to John de Montgomery to bring to the duke of Brabant and bring back to the king letters patent of the duke testifying that he had received the 11,000 florins in part payment of the fee which he receives from the king.

Writ de intendendo for Arnold Seguyn, son of the king's serjeant, Reynumd Seguyn, chief butler, as deputy during his father's pleasure in the office of chief butler in the port of Southampton.

By bill of Reynumd himself.

In like manner William de Snoryngg is deputed in the port of Lynn.

Also Adam de Walton, clerk, in the ports of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Hertilpol and Yarm.

By bill of Reynumd himself.

Writ of aid for the said Arnold, as such deputy, in levying the 2s. in the tun and 12l. in the pipe due to the king on wine brought to the said port by merchant strangers.

By bill of Reynumd himself.

The like for the said William in the port of Lynn.

Also for Adam in the ports of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Hertilpol and Yarm.

By bill of Reynumd himself.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Simon, vicar of the church of Segre, to the prior and convent of Bradenestok, in satisfaction of 100s. of the 20 marks yearly of land and rent which they had the licence of Edward II to acquire, of a messuage and four virgates of land in Little Tokkenham by Lynham, of the value of 60s. yearly as appears by inquisition taken by John Mauduyt, escheator in the county of Wilts.

Licence, at the request of Richard, earl of Arundel, for the abbess and nuns of Shaftesbury to appropriate the church of Falgham, which is of their advowson.

By p.s.

Appointment of Thomas de Methelaye, John de Wilton, Thomas de Thorpe and Richard de Kesburgh to take at the king's charges in the counties of Essex and Suffolk such carriages as shall be necessary to bring the rolls of the justices appointed to hold the pleas before the king from London to Ipswich, where the king has ordained that their next sessions shall be held.

By K.