Membrane 10—cont.

Manor of Maxstok, and the said John, in part satisfaction thereof, has alienated in frank almoni to the prior and convent the capital messuage of the manor of Maxstok within the park there, two other messuages, a cottage, a virgate, 59 acres, 3 roods, 35 perches of land, 20 acres of meadow, 14½ acres of wood and pasture and 18 acres of underwood, in the same manor, and 32s. 2½d. of rent from certain free tenants there, which are held of John de Oddyngesele and are worth by the year with the said rent, 13l. 6s. 6d. as appears by inquisition taken by John Waley escheator in the county of Warwick; the king, at the request of William de Clymont, earl of Huntingdon, confirms the alienation and grants that the prior and convent shall hold the premises together with the soil of the said wood and underwood and the rent, to them and their successors undisturbed by the king or his justices, escheators, sheriffs or other bailiffs.
