

1344.

Membrane 37d—cont.

council to answer touching those things which shall be set forth to him on the king's behalf and abide their order. By K. & C.

July 21. Appointment of John Lercedekne, 'chivaler,' William de Trefurthken, Westminster. Richard de Trefurthken and Nicholas Duraunt, to arrest John son of John de Arundell, knight, William de Molton, Oliver de Rusculian, John Meulee of Trerovel, John Broun of Aldestowe, 'smyth,' Martin, bailiff of Treloy, Nicholas de Credyton, Richard son of William de Denesel and John de Denysel, who are indicted of the death of John de Trefurthken, as appears by the tenour of the indictment sent into the chancery by the king's order by the sheriff and coroners of Cornwall, and on that account have fled the county and are now fugitives in other counties perpetrating divers evils; and to bring them to the gaol of Launceveton, there to remain in the custody of the sheriff until the king give further order therein.

July 10. Commission to Gilbert de Umframvyll, earl of Anegos, John de Westminster. Fennewyk, Richard de Galeweye, mayor of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Adam de Corbrigge to survey weirs and kiddles across the water of Tyne, which are said to be now made beyond the number ordained and longer than they ought to be so as to obstruct the passage of boats and ships to the said town, to remove all that they find to exceed the number ordained or to be longer, broader or higher than they ought to be, and to punish by amercements or otherwise as shall be expedient all those whom they shall find making such weirs and kiddles.

MEMBRANE 35d.

July 24. Commission to Thomas de Pabenham, John de Lyouns and Roger de Westminster. Middelton to make inquisition in the county of Huntingdon whether, as is said, very many lands and tenements there, held in chief, have been alienated without the king's licence and to certify him of the whole truth herein. By C.

July 20. Commission of oyer and terminer to John de Verdon, Thomas de Westminster. Verdon, John de Lyons, Richard de Islep and Roger de Midelton, touching the death of William de Wagemor, wickedly killed at Bockeby, co. Northampton. By C.

July 20. Commission of the peace, pursuant to the statutes of Winchester and Westminster. Northampton, to John Howard, Robert de Erpyngham, Nicholas du Chastel and John de Berneye, in the county of Norfolk. By pet. of Parliament.

The like to the following, in the counties named:—

Hugh de Saxham	}	Suffolk.
William de Tendryng
Robert de Wachesham
John de Aspale

John Verdon	}	Northampton.
Warin Latymer
Thomas Verdon
George de Longvill
Richard de Islep

John de Lyle	}	Rutland.
Robert de Helywell
John de Boyvill
William Wade		