

1344.

Membrane 12d—cont.

gate open, assaulted many men of the city there and killed some, and afterwards assembling with them in the king's wood of 'La Haye' by the city Richard de Bascurvill, John Talbot, John de Rous, John de Frene the younger, John de Wyne, Baldwin de Frivill, William Deveroys, knights, and others their esquires, and forming an unlawful confederacy surrounded the city and stopped the ways leading to it and prevented the inhabitants of those parts from coming to the city with goods, things and other victuals for the sustenance of the king's lieges there, took without payment wines and victuals brought there for the city and had their will of them, and afterwards turned back carts and carriages wherein the wines and victuals were brought to the city, broke divers mills built round the city so that those of those parts could not grind their corn there, and daily take the beasts of divers men of the city in parts adjacent to the city, so that their lands remain uncultivated, and do many other evils and crimes against the city. By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 11d.

Oct. 26.
Westminster.

Commission of oyer and terminer to Richard de Kelleshull, Hugh de Berewyk, John le Bruyn and John le Venour, on complaint by Edward, prince of Wales, that John atte Cherche of Wycombe, John Mundy, Roger Cristemasse, Peter Onyot, John Syred the elder, John Syred the younger, John Jeky, John Prophete, Thomas Potter, Richard Bokeby of Wycombe, Robert Aylesbury of Thame and others carried away his goods at Wycombe, co. Buckingham, and assaulted his servants, William Overthewater of Ryseburgh the younger and John his brother so that their life was despaired of, whereby he lost their service for a great time.

By K.

Nov. 6.
Melford.

Commission to Thomas de Berkele, Gilbert Talebot, Maurice de Berkele, Thomas de Bradestan and William de Chiltenham to make inquisitions in the county of Hereford touching the rescue by Master Stephen de Ledbury, dean of the church of St. Ethelbert, Hereford, and others from the hands of the sheriff of Hereford of felons adjudged to be hanged before Roger Hillary and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Hereford, to follow and arrest all those indicted thereof by such inquisitions and to commit them to the nearest gaol.

By K.

[Cf. Membrane 13d.]Nov. 10.
Melford.

Commission to Philip de Weston and Nicholas de Bokelond, king's clerks, to audit the account of Thomas de Hatfeld, king's clerk, receiver as well of the king's money and jewels as of other things pertaining to the chamber, from 12 July, 12 Edward III, until 1 November last. By p.s.

Dec. 3.
Hoxne.

Commission of oyer and terminer to Richard de Wylughby, Roger Hillary, Richard de Kelleshull, Robert Selyman, John Mauduyt and John de Miere, on complaint by Robert, bishop of Salisbury, that Elias Homes, Roger atte Welle, John de Lynham, William de Bemenstre, Robert Marie, John Bannebost, Nicholas Skylling, Richard Bartelot, Richard de Knyghteton, John de Knyghteton, Richard le Frere, John de Ely, Henry de Gloucestre, John Paynet the elder, John Paynet the younger, William Paynet, Robert de Boscombe, Ralph Mulsy, Ralph de Langeford, William Pach, John Goudchild, John le White, Walter Fraunkeleyn, William Stercok, Robert de Borham, John Andreu, Henry de Stapelford, John de Wallop, William le Cripse, John Husee, John Burgeis, 'draper,' James Vellard, John Vellard and others assaulted William Randolf, his bailiff of