April 1. Tower of London.

Whereas the king, at the request of his kinswoman, Blanche, lady of Wake, lately granted to Hervey de Mohun an annuity of 10 marks at the exchequer until he should provide him with an escheat, custody or bailiwick of equal value; he has granted to him that he shall receive the 10 marks out of the issues of the county of Warwick, for his life.

Whereas Thomas de Berewyk acquired in fee from Hugh Gryvel 10 acres of meadow called ‘Paytfneclos,’ in Esyngwald, which Hugh acquired in fee from Richard Paytfyn, tenant in chief, and both Thomas and Hugh entered into the same without the king’s licence, the king has pardoned the trespasses in this behalf and granted that Thomas shall have again and retain the same. Further, he has granted licence for him to enfeoff Thomas Ughtred, knight, of the said meadow.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted licence for Thomas, abbot of St. Mary’s, York, whose lands are in divers counties far distant from the abbey and he is often impleaded in divers of the king’s courts and elsewhere, where because of the distances and the dangers of the ways he cannot appear without very great bodily danger and expense, to make attorneys in the court of King’s Bench to sue and defend for him; the abbot in pursuance of such licence has attorned Peter de Rotyngton and William de Burgh, his fellow-monks, and the king, at his instance, has granted that they or whichever of them shall be present may make other attorneys in the place of the abbot as they will.

The abbot has like letters nominating the following fellow-monks as his attorneys at his will:
- Alexander de Wath and Robert de Normanby.
- Thomas de Midford and William de Seynesbury.
- William de Bernyngham and William de Tanfeld.
- Robert de Middelham and John de Manser.

Whereas the king lately committed to Ralph de Nevill the custody of the lands in the county of Westmoreland with the shrievalty of that county, late of Robert de Clyfford, during the nonage of the heir, to wit for six years from 16 April last, at a rent of 88l. 17s. 9½d., and whereas Ralph, for certain important business of the king, has paid the said farm for six years, to wit 800 marks, in advance, at the receipt of the exchequer; the king, for his security, by these presents discharges him, his heirs and executors of the said sum.

Pardon to Philip son of John le Rous and Alice, his wife, for acquiring in tail from John le Rous a carucate of land and 60s. of rent in Bassyingbourn, held in chief, and entering into the same without licence; and restitution of the same, which have been taken into the king’s hands on account of the trespass, to them.

Acquittance to Thomas de Metham, knight, and William de Lound, late guardians of the temporalities of the see of York during the voidance after the death of William de Melton, the last archbishop, and their heirs and executors, in respect of their account, they having passed the same before Nicholas de Bokelond and his fellows, auditors of the accounts of the chamber.

Presentation of William de Newenham to the church of Corston, in the diocese of Bath and Wells.
