1345.
Appointment, pursuant to the agreement between the king and the merchants to whom he has granted the customs and subsidies of the realm for a term touching the appointment of customers and troners in ports where the cocket is open, of John de Welhous, on their nomination, to hold the office of the tronage of wool in the port of Southampton, during pleasure.

MEMORANDUM 13.

April 24. Westminster.
The prior of Little Malvern, staying in England, has letters nominating brother Henry de Stauntou, his fellow-monk, and John de Ovre as his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

April 20. Westminster. Inspection and confirmation of a writing of indenture (in French) of John de Moubray, lord of the isle of Havilholm and of the honours of Brembre and Conhor, dated at Eppeworth, 10 March, 15 Edward III, granting for life to his yeoman, Reginald de Stirchesleye (Stirchesleye, in the margin), the bailiwick of baron of his lordship of Burton in Lounesdale, he rendering only the accustomed services himself or by his lieutenant.

April 20. Westminster.
Whereas, on 1 December in his seventeenth year, the king assigned to Thomas Lightred 200£, wherein Richard Scott of Newcastle-upon-Tyne made fine with him before William de Kildesby, king's clerk, at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on the mainprise of Robert Dogel, John Frismarys, John de Duresme and Roger de Wodrington, and afterwards on 18 July following, on examination before the king and council for what cause he made the fine, because it seemed to them that the fine was excessive for the quantity of the fault, the king with the assent of the council reduced the same to 100£, and whereas afterwards, for causes shown before him he commanded the said 200£ to be levied upon the said Richard: now on a fuller examination and discussion before the king and council of the whole matter, it is deemed that 100£ is sufficient for the fine in this behalf, and the king wills that the said reduction remain of force and Richard pay only 100£.

April 23. Westminster.
Mandate to Thomas son of William le Deen to answer to John de Pulteneye, citizen of London, for homages, fealties, rents and other services due by him to the manor of Osprenge, co. Kent, the reversion of which manor the king by letters patent lately granted to him in fee with the knights' fees, advowsons and other things pertaining to the same; it having been found by inquisition since taken by John de Vieleston, escheator in the county of Kent, to discover what the said fees were and who were the tenants of them, that he holds a fee and a half in Thurleigh, extended at 15s. yearly, a moiety of a fee in Docton Malerbe, extended at 100s. yearly, and a moiety of a fee in Wornesell, extended at 100s. yearly, of the manor aforesaid.

Grant to William de Kyllesby, king's clerk, of the prebend of Sutton, in the cathedral church of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the see of Chichester.

Mandate in pursuance to R. bishop of Chichester.
The like to the dean and chapter of the church.