Membrane 12—cont.

ampton, and Robert, sometime earl of Suffolk, all actions he or the merchants of the society might have against them by reason of any sums of money due, and so these letters are cancelled and defaced. Which letters so cancelled with the writing and a letter procuratorial of Peter de Bardes of Florence, fellow and attorney of the society aforesaid, were delivered on 18 January in the said year to the treasurer of England for safe custody in the treasury of the said king Richard.

May 28.
Westminster. The abbot of St. Martin, Séz, staying in parts beyond the seas, has letters nominating brother Michael de Nanchal and John de Stopeham as his attorneys in England for five years. By fine of 6 marks. Sussex.

May 24.
Westminster. Ratification of the estate of Nicholas de Lichefeld as parson of the church of Ponne, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, on the collation of R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. By p.s.

May 20.
Westminster. Presentation of John de Ulseby, parson of the church of St. Mary, Bedeford, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Astorp, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of Adam de Welle, tenant in chief, on an exchange of benefices with John Daules of Brampton.

May 11.
Westminster. Licence for Edward de Monte Acuto and Alice, his wife, to enfeoff John de Cologne and Thomas de Holbech, merchants of London, of the manor of Redenhale, said to be held in chief. By p.s.

May 10.
Westminster. Grant to William de Tykehull, king's clerk, of the custody of the hospital of Gretham, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Durham. By p.s.

June 1.
Westminster. Protection and safe-conduct, until St. Peter ad Vincula, for brother Alexander de Seton, of the order of the brethren of the Hospital of St.
John of Jerusalem of Scotland, coming to London from Scotland by command of his prior and superior in England, with his household, horses and harness. By C.

Membrane 11.

Exemplification, at the request of the son and heir of Geoffrey de la Lynde, son and heir of William de Hertleye, son and heir of William de Hertleye, of an inquisition taken by order of Edward II before the escheator, at Hertleye, on 12 March, in the sixth year of the said king, of the lands late of William de la Hertleye in the county of Dorset, on the oath of Henry de Glamvyle, John de Chantemerle, John de Borton, William de Blakemore, John Crubbe, Nicholas de Blakemore, Robert de Aulton, Geoffrey de Thornhulle, Robert de Coridon, Henry de Yevelton, William Quarel, and John de Maningford, who say that he held lands at Hertleye of the king in chief as of the manor of Fordlington, pertaining to the earldom of Cornwall, then in the hands of the king, in socage, by the service of 30s. yearly, to wit a capital messuage worth by the year with the herbage of an orchard there, 4s., 70 acres of arable land of the value of 17s. 6d. yearly, the price of an acre 3s./, a several pasture worth 12s. yearly, 30s. 6d. of rent of free tenants, 30s. of rent of eight villeins there, and pleas and profits of court, of the value of 12d. yearly. They say also that the said William de la Hertleye and his heirs ought to have yearly housbote and heybote in the demesne wood pertaining to the said manor