before the shrine of the said saint at certain times and other works of piety, for the souls of Master Edmund de London, sometime archdeacon of Bedeford, and the said John, when he is dead, in masses and orisons as he shall ordain. By p.s.

June 20.

Sandwich.

Grant that Peter de Bello Campo, who makes continual stay with the king and is now about to go with him to parts beyond the seas and who for that cause, as well as because of the great distances of the places of the land of Ireland, cannot discharge in person the office of assayer of measures in that land, granted to him by letters patent, dated 27 April, 16 Edward III, may discharge the same by substitutes whom he shall depute by letters patent and for whom he shall be responsible. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 5.

May 18.

Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Hugh Martel of two messuages and three virgates of land, in Rotyngton, not held in chief, and a bovate and a half of land and a moiety of a messuage, in Clifton by Notyngham, held in chief, as has been found by inquisitions taken thereof, to five chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Andrew, Planupro, for the good estate of him and Aumflesia, his wife, for their souls when they are dead, for the souls of their ancestors and heirs, and for the soul of Robert, late bishop of Dublin, and the souls of his ancestors.

By K. and by fine of 100s. Nottingham.

May 28.

Westminster.

Licence for the abbot and convent of Tavistok, lords of the island of Sully, who are bound by reason of their lands there to find two of their monks to celebrate divine service daily in the island for the souls of the royal founders of the abbey and their heirs, to find two secular chaplains for this in place of the said monks so long as the war with France shall last.

By fine of 20s. Devon.

April 23.

Westminster.

Licence for John de Shordich, to whom the king by letters patent has granted the office of the chirography of the Common Bench for life, to discharge the office by attorney whenever he shall be absent. By K.

June 3.

Westminster.

Whereas Master John de Thoresby, king’s clerk, keeper of the rolls of the chancery, is causing divers victuals for the sustenance of him and his household dwelling on the king’s service in London to be brought by his men and servants from his church of Oundle at divers times, the king has taken the victuals and men and servants into his special protection for one year.

June 8.

Westminster.

Presentation of John Coupegorge to the church of Wympel, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king’s gift by reason of the priory of Cowyk being in his hands on account of the war with France. By p.s.

June 6.

Westminster.

Presentation of William de Wythevdley, parson of the church of Treton, in the diocese of York, to the church of Herlyngeston, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Lenton being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Master John de Austan.

June 3.

Westminster.

Grant that the aid which the citizens of London of their liberality have now granted in agreeing at the king’s mandate to select a certain number of archers in the city and send them to parts beyond the seas for the