Memorandum that on Sunday, to wit 8 July, in this year the king passed over from England upon the sea and on the same day delivered a great seal deputed for the rule of England while he is engaged abroad to Robert de Sadyngton, his chancellor, to rule and keep, as appears in a Memorandum enrolled on the dorse of the Close Roll of this year.

[Patents following tested by Lionel, the king's son, Keeper of the realm.]

Whereas the king, by letters patent, lately granted to Thomas de Bradeston the 500 marks, which the proctor of the abbot of Fécamp pays for the farm of the abbot's lands now being in the king's hands, in lieu of a like sum at the exchequer granted to him to support the estate of banneret, and afterwards, in lieu of 256l. 7s. 3d. paid to him by the proctor for the farm of the said lands in the county of Sussex, which lands the king subsequently committed to his kinswoman, Eleanor de Bello Monte, now the wife of Richard, earl of Arundel, granted to the said Thomas the farm of the priory of Derhurst, extended at 110l. and the farm of the priory of Newent, extended at 130l. yearly, on condition of his answering at the exchequer for the 72s. 9d. whereby these exceeded the said sum; the said Thomas has now made petition that, inasmuch as 84 marks due to him towards the sum aforesaid out of the manors of Chiltenham and Slaughter of the said abbot in the county of Gloucester are in arrear, he may have the custody of those manors as of that value and the king assenting to his petition has granted that he shall have the same for such times as the lands remain in the king's hands on account of the war with France.

By p.s.

Grant to Nicholas de la Despense, king's yeoman, in lieu of the dower of his wife, Elizabeth, out of the lands of Peter Pugeys, sometime her husband, in Stokepugeys and elsewhere, which are in the king's hands for certain causes, of a tun of wine yearly at Michaelmas, by the hands of his butler, for such time as the lands remain in his hands.

By p.s.

Pardon to Alan de Dockyang, at the request of Thomas de Bradeston and because he has released to the king 60l. wherein, as he asserts, the king is bound to him for wages of himself and his men serving the king in a ship of the said Alan in the company of Robert de Morle, late admiral of the fleet toward the north, of his outlawry in the county of Norfolk for non-appearance before the king to answer touching the plunder of the ship called la Tarite on the coast of Flanders whereby he was indicted.

By p.s.

Confirmation of an indenture whereby Thomas de Ferariis, Robert de Herle, John de Melbourn, Roger de Ledebury, Hugh de Cokesey, Richard de Stonleye and Walter de Shakenhurst granted to Thomas de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, and his heirs a rent of 373l. out of the castle and manor of Elmeleye and the manors of Comberton, Wyk, Sherefillen, Newytton, Wadbergh, Sallewarp, Acton Beauchamp, co. Worcester, Kenemerton, Wykeowane, Chelesworth, Lideneye, co. Gloucester, and Haselegh, co. Warwick, not held in chief as is said, to be paid at Michaelmas and Lady Day, with power to distrain for the same if in arrear; and the earl granted for him and his heirs that if he shall decease