3 roods of meadow, pasture for two cows, 2s. of rent and two parts of a messuage, in Cirencestre, Braye, Est Hakeburn, Astone Uþthroope and Welewe, which, beyond the rent aforesaid, are of the value of 38s. 4d. yearly, as appears by divers inquisitions taken by Simon Basset, escheator in the county of Gloucester, John de Alveton, escheator in the counties of Oxford and Berks, and Thomas Cary, escheator in the county of Somerset.

Notification that on inspection of the rolls of the taxations of churches and other ecclesiastical benefices of England, remaining in the chancery, there is found this entry— the church of Lyndeby, in the deanery of Nottingham, beyond a pension of 100s. and a pension of the prior of Lenton, in that church, 1 mark.

Grant, during pleasure, to the guardian and Friars Minor of Oxford, towards the repair of their church and other buildings in Oxford, 60 square feet of the king's quarry within the forest of Shottore by Whattle.

Protection for one year for Master John de Drayton, official of the archdeacon of Buckingham, now threatened with violence and injury to his person and goods as well in the exercise of his office as in prosecuting divers businesses in the king's courts and elsewhere, and for his men, inisters, lands and goods.

Pardon to Roger la Zouche, late sheriff of Leicester and Warwick, for all manner of trespasses, oppressions and conspiracies wherewith he is charged, and of any consequent outlawries.

Whereas the abbot of Prémontré, the superior abbot of the order, has appointed and deputed the abbots of Neuhaus and la Dale to visit the houses of the order in England and reform any abuses therein and they dare not, without the king's licence levy what by virtue of their appointment they should have for securing the privileges of their order, and their labours and expenses in that behalf; the king hereby gives them special licence to act upon the said appointment and levy what of right is reasonably due. They are not however to send any tribute or cess to their said superior or to any other beyond the seas by any colour.

Feb. 10 Westminster.

Although the king of late, on a suggestion that the vicarage of the church of Trynleye, the advowson whereof pertains to the priory of Derhurst, fell vacant in the time when the priory was in his hands on account of the war with France, presented John de Ploufeld to the same, yet inasmuch as evidence has been produced before him in the chancery showing that the vacancy occurred long after the restitution to the then prior of the priory with the knights' fees and advowsons of churches pertaining to the same, and William Hide of Aldesworth was inducted to the said vicarage after such restitution, he ratifies the estate which the said William has therein.

Notification of the foregoing to W. bishop of Worcester.

Pardon to Andrew Forcer of the suit of the king's peace against him for the death of Richard Body and of any consequent outlawry.
