1346.

March 15.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Giles de Bello Campo to take himself and by such deputies as he shall appoint, the king's prises of falcons of any kind brought to England by merchants and others, as has been usual, and in such manner as Thomas Wake of Bliseworth, deceased, held the office, with power to imprison any persons found rebellious herein.

By p.s.

March 16.

Writ of aid, during the queen's pleasure, for Robert de Kynbelle and Richard Whyte, charged by the treasurer of the household of queen Isabella to make purveyances for the office of the great kitchen of that household.

By K.

March 18.

Presentation of William son of Matthew de Wytnesham of Ipswich, parson of the church of St. Margaret, Southelmham, in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Chelmundeston, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Nicholas de Lacy.

March 23—cont.

Membrane 28—cont.

latter for his life, to Augustine Waleys of the office of controller of customs in the same port and the custody of one part of the cocket seal, during pleasure, with the usual fees; and inasmuch as he is constantly attendant on the service of queen Philippa in her household, the king grants that he may have a substitute in the office while so engaged.

By p.s.

Membrane 23—

cent.

latter for his life, to Augustine Waleys of the office of controller of customs in the same port and the custody of one part of the cocket seal, during pleasure, with the usual fees; and inasmuch as he is constantly attendant on the service of queen Philippa in her household, the king grants that he may have a substitute in the office while so engaged. By p.s.

By K.

Vacated because surrendered and Master Paul de Monte Riorum has a letter obligatory of the king of 8,340£. 15s. of those 23,082£. 3s. 10d. and the merchants have like letters obligatory of 19,736£. 85. 10d. as appears below in this roll under date of 12 May.

Presented to the king's merchants of the society of the Bardi of Florence to pay to them 23,082£. 3s. 10d. due on their account begun before Robert de Wodehous and his fellows and afterwards rendered before the treasurer and barons of the exchequer, in which account no mention is made of any gift or remuneration as has been found by a certificate of the said treasurer and barons sent into the chancery. By K. and by p.s.

Safe conduct for brother Walter de Mora, of the order of Friars Preachers, going to divers places for business enjoined on him by the king.

Grant to Maud, late the wife of Eustace Power, who has not whereof to live or maintain her estate as she ought by reason of the lands of her said husband having been taken into the king's hands on account of his rebellion in adhering to the king's enemies in Ireland, that in case she be not endowed out of the said lands according to law and the custom of that land and has not any lands for her dower, she shall have for life lands to the value of her dower out of the same lands of her husband.

By p.s.