1346.
April 22. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Hugh de Bray, going to Ireland on the king's service with John Moriez.
By testimony of John himself.
The like for Robert de Bilkenor, 'chivaler,' also going.
By testimony of the same John.

MEMBRANE 17.

April 6. Whereas by covenants between the king and Henry Picard and his fellows, merchants, in consideration of a loan lately made by them, the king granted to them 20s. out of the subsidy of 40s. on every sack of wool exported until they should be satisfied of 35,000 marks; the king, for good service done by the said Henry and by pretext of a late loan by him of 2,000l. towards the furtherance of difficult business in Flanders, has granted to him that after he and his fellows be satisfied of the 35,000 marks, he shall receive 20s. of the subsidy until he shall be satisfied of 2,000l. in allowance of debts wherein the king is bound to men of the realm by letters patent and bills of the wardrobe remaining in the custody of the said Henry.
By p.s.

April 12. Protection and safe conduct for one year for the merchants of Dynaunt in Almain trading within the realm of England as the king would not that they and their goods should be arrested within the realm for any debt whereof they are not sureties or principal debtors or for trespasses of others, and, notwithstanding that the bishop of Liéges, who claims the lordship of their town, could be called an adherent of the king's enemies, the commonalty of the town and the merchants thereof trading in England have not been adherents of his enemies and rebels.

April 12. Grant to William de Flisco, son of Master Nicholinus de Flisco, prebendary of Stremsale, in the church of St. Peter, York, that he may freely receive and order to his best advantage the fruits and profits of the prebend, and shall not be compelled to any contribution to the king with the other aliens. [P.s.] By p.s.
The like to John de Flisco, son of the same Nicholinus, prebendary of Teyngton and Yalmpton, in the diocese of Exeter.
The like to the same John, parson of the church of Terryng, in the diocese of Chichester.

April 18. Grant to Conrad Clippyng, Tidemann Lymergh, John de Bek, Tidemann Spiesmaghel, John Clippyng, Conrad, his brother, and John Clippyng the younger, merchants of Almain, who with other merchants of Almain have the house in the city of London, commonly called 'Gildchalla Theutonicorum,' and are of the gild of the said house, as John Hamound, citizen of London, alderman of the same house, has certified the king in his chancery, that they shall have and enjoy all the liberties and immunities confirmed by his charter to the merchants of the gild.
By p.s.

April 18. Grant for life to John de Queldryk, in enlargement of the late grant to him by letters patent of 3d. a day by the hands of the sheriff of York, of 18s. 4d. yearly for his robe out of the issues of the same county.
By p.s.

April 20. Appointment, during pleasure, of Ivo de Glynton, clerk, and Adam de Shareshull, knight, to acknowledge and keep possession of the inheritance of queen Philippa descending to her by the death of her brother, William, count of Hainault. [P.s.]
