April 20. Westminster. Peter de Bello Campo, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Graunsteote and John de Pudsay as his attorneys in Ireland for two years. William de Burgh, clerk, received the attorneys.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to Maud de Plumpton, rocke of the cradle of his son, Edward, prince of Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, an annuity of 10 marks at the exchequer until he or his heirs should provide her with an equivalent of land or rent; in consideration of her manifold services, as well to the said prince as to Edmund de Langlee, the king's son, he has granted to her for life a further annuity of 5 marks at the said exchequer. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 15.

April 28. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and convent of Chaucombe, in full satisfaction of the 100s. yearly of land and rent which they have the king's licence to acquire, of the following:

- by John de Lyouns, eight messuages, seven virgates and 9 acres of land, 12l. of rent, a moiety of a messuage and of 1 acre of land, two parts of a messuage and a third part of a messuage, in Horpol, Plumpton, Pyrie, Grymmesbury and Nethercoote;
- by John de Wardyngton, a messuage and 9 acres of land, in Throp Mundevill; and
- by John de Segrave, knight, 2 acres of land in Chaucombe.

The said messuages, land, moiety, two parts and third part are of the clear yearly value of 6s. 1d. as appears by inquisition taken by Robert Pavely, escheator in the county of Northampton.

April 28. Westminster. Presentation of John de Blebury, parson of the church of Bokemyestre in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Houghton, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Wolricheston being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William de Burgh.

April 30. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Cryel to the warden of the perpetual chantry of the chapel of St. Thomas, on the north side of the church of Ostringhangre, of 4 acres of land in Ostringhangre by Hethe and the advowson of the said church, to celebrate divine service daily for the good estate of the king and the said John, for their souls when they are dead and for the souls of their ancestors; and for the appropriation of the church by the warden. By p.s.

April 26. Westminster. Pardon, at the request of Thomas de Lucy, to John le Clerc of Galweye of the king's suit against him for adherence to his enemies of Scotland, as well as for all manner of trespasses and felonies whereof he is appealed, and of any consequent outlawries. By p.s.

April 28. Westminster.
