1346.

May 13. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, to the abbess and minoresses of Deneye of the advowson of the abbey of minoresses of Waterbeche, of the order of St. Clare, held in chief. Licence also for the union of Waterbeche abbey to the abbey of Deneye. By p.s. [Monasticiv, VI. p. 1550.]

May 13. Licence for Richard Talbot and Elizabeth, his wife, to quit-claim in fee to the said countess the advowson aforesaid, with a clause of warranty against the heirs of Elizabeth. By p.s.

May 20. Protection and safe conduct, until Michaelmas, for brother Robert Corbel, monk of Normandy, who has been elected by his abbot and confères to be prior of the priory of Shirbourn Monachorum in England, and is coming to England to prosecute business relating to his election; and for his men and servants. By C.

May 21. Pardon, at the request of the king's kinsman, Edward de Balliolo, king of Scotland, to John del Hill of the king's suit for the death of Alan Slegell, whereof he is appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

May 22. Power to Walter de Bermyngham, justiciary of Ireland, to receive into the king's peace and fealty Englishmen as well as Irishmen now in rebellion; and to make out pardons for them under the seal of Ireland by the counsel and advice of the chancellor and the treasurer there; Maurice son of Thomas, earl of Dessemond, Thomas le Fitz Johan 'le neveu' and Walter de Maundevill, excepted. By K. & C.

June 25. Presentation of William de Lound to the church of Thornham Pilcok, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Eye being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 22. Grant to John de Hampslape of the office of chief ingrosser in the exchequer of Dublin, during pleasure, with the accustomed fee, notwithstanding any prior appointment by the king of William de Burton to the office. By K. & C. Mandate in pursuance to Walter de Bermyngham, justiciary of Ireland, or such as supplies his place.

May 20. Whereas James de Wodestok and Joan, his wife, lately acquired to them and the heirs of James the manor of Apelton and the advowson of the church of that town, held in chief as is said, from Richard de la Mote, son and heir of the bodies of Giles de la Mote and Alice his wife, who held the same in tail by grant of Edward I or Edward II, on condition that in default of heirs of their bodies the same should revert to the grantor, and afterwards Thomas de Crotebrugg, kinsman and heir of the said James, granted that the manor and advowson, after the death of Joan, should remain to William de Shareshull in fee, obtaining the royal licence in each case; and whereas afterwards Thomas de Mussenden, to whom Joan granted her estate in the premises, surrendered the manor and advowson to the said William: the king, although it is hardly probable that Giles,