Whereas John Hertrigge lately acquired from Avelina de Burnham a virgate of land in Basteldene, held in chief, and as well he as afterwards William de Burton and Elizabeth, his wife, daughter and heir of the said John, entered into the same, without licence; the king of special grace has pardoned the trespasses herein and granted that the same William and Elizabeth shall have again the land, which for the trespasses has been taken into the king's hands, to hold to them and the heirs of Elizabeth. By letters patent the king lately granted in fee to Simon de Hale 100*l.* yearly out of the customs in the port of London, and afterwards, at his request, took the homage of Franco de Hale and received him as son and heir of Simon to have the said rent; the said Simon is now deceased, and the king, having regard to his homage done to him and his stay with him, has granted to the said Franco the said 100*l.* By p.s.
