Memorandum that these letters patent were sealed, after that the great seal, which Master John de Offord, dean of Lincoln, the chancellor, had in his keeping, [was delivered] by him to Master John de Thoresby, keeper of the privy seal, at Fareham by Porchester, upon the passage of the king to parts beyond the seas, and a copy of them was sent by the said John de Thoresby into the chancery for enrolment.

Grant in fee to Richard Bernard, king's yeoman, of the lands late of Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, in Charleton by Beverston, which came into the king's hands as escheats by the earl's forfeiture. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 17.

Appointment of the king's son, Lionel, as keeper of the realm and the king's lieutenant there for such time as the king shall be beyond the seas. [Pledura.] By K.

Grant to him of full power to grant licences to elect to chapters of cathedral churches and convents, to give the royal assent to elections when made and to order restitution of temporalities to the persons elected and livery of lands to heirs, as the king would do if present: also to present to churches in the king's gift exceeding the value of 20 marks yearly but not exceeding 20l. (those to which the chancellor presents excepted), reserving to the king all other presentations to ecclesiastical benefices.

By K.

Here a great seal set for the rule of the realm while the king is abroad was delivered to Master John de Offord, the chancellor, to rule and keep, as appears in a memorandum on the dorse of the Close Roll of this year.

Grant to John Darcy 'le filz,' that he may the better support the estate of a banneret which he has received from the king, of an annuity of 200l. at the exchequer, for life or until he have an equivalent provision in land or rent in England. By K.

Memorandum that these letters, sealed at Hogges in Normandy, were sent to England, there to be enrolled on the Chancery Rolls.

[Patents following tested by the keeper of the realm.]