1346.

Membrane 7—cont.

all the pence arising from the fruits and issues of that church for such term at London for delivery to him by the Assumption last; having regard to the devotion of Edward I to the glorious Virgin Mary and the special affection which he bore to the then provost and convent by reason of the hospitalities and alms of distributions and other charitable works done daily in the hospital, and that his same grandfather gave the church, which was of his advowson, to the provost and convent to appropriate, he has granted that they and the church shall not be charged by pretext of the said ordinance.

By C.

MEMBRANE 6.

Aug. 12.
Windsor.

Grant to the good men of the town of Kehm by Newerk of pontage for three years on wares for sale passing over or under their bridge and cawsies, for repair of such bridge and cawsies. By p.s.

Aug. 8.
Windsor.

Whereas the king of late, learning that Roger de Maners was prosecuting appeals in derogation of his presentation of Richard de Scarle to the church of Hoghton, contrary to a writ of prohibition, caused the said Roger to be summoned before the justices of the Bench to answer touching the premises, and Roger appearing said that no such writ was delivered to him and that he is not guilty in the premises, and thereof put himself upon the country, commanded the sheriff of Huntingdon and the sheriffs of London to cause jurors to come before the same justices at Westminster on the quinzaine of Michaelmas next and Roger has in the meantime been released from the Flete prison on sufficient mainprise, and whereas the said Roger has made instant petition before the king and council that, inasmuch as he is summoned at the suit of the said Richard touching the possession of the church to answer before the abbot of Leicesters, the delegate of the papal see in this behalf, at Leicesters on the first court day after Matthew the Apostle, he may have an indemnity to enable him while under mainprise to go to Leicesters and answer therein; the king has taken him and his men and servants into his protection, during pleasure, in going to Leicesters or elsewhere to answer in the premises and returning to Westminster at the quinzaine to stay there and elsewhere in the city of London as he will, until the country decide between him and the king. By C.

Aug. 10.
Windsor.

Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Teukesbury of pavage for four years for paving their town and the ways adjacent thereeto. By C. and by fine of 40s.

Aug. 15.
Windsor.

Protection and safe conduct, until the octaves of the Nativity of St. Mary, for Richard de Stourton and Andrew de Horton, going at once in a boat called Hakebot, whereof Hanekin Robyn is master, to Flanders on the king's service, as well as for the boatmen and mariners.

July 28.
Windsor.

Pardon to Robert le Smyth of Ipswich, mariner, in consideration of his service to the king in the present passage, of the king's suit for the death of John de Hallebe, whereof he is indicted and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 5.

July 20.
Windsor.

On the petition of Simon de Geynesburgh setting forth that William de Clynton, earl of Huntingdon, to whom the king lately granted in tail