latter should stay in parts beyond the seas for this time, without his special licence; the king because of his infirmity has given him licence to come to England and notifies the fact by these presents. By bill of p.s.

Oct. 30.
Westminster.

Presentation of Ralph de Foxle to the church of Kyngeston by Sidyngbourne, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury.

Sept. 21.
Windsor.

Grant to John de Turburvill of what pertains to the king of the marriage of Eleanor late the wife of Adam de Grymesede, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, to wit any fine she may make for the same or the forfeiture due if she marry without licence.

By p.s.

Oct. 4.
Westminster.

Whereas the manor of Croston, which is held of the king in chief by knight service as appears by inquisition taken by Thomas Cary, escheator in the county of Somerset, in the time of the king's progenitors as well as in his own time has been alienated to divers persons without licence and in this way has lately come into the hands of John Inge, and he and Alice Basset afterwards acquired the same for life from William Inge, parson of the church of Henton, with successive remainders in tail to Thomas son of Thomas ap Adam, 'chivaler,' and Joan, his wife, to John son of the said Alice, to Hildebrand, brother of the said John, to Alice, sister of the said Hildebrand, and Elizabeth, her sister, and ultimate remainder to the right heirs of the said William Inge, without licence of any of the king's progenitors or of the present king; the latter as an act of grace to the said John and Alice, now his wife, has pardoned all trespasses herein and granted that they shall hold the manor for life with remainders as above.

By p.s.

Nov. 3.
Tower of London.

On the petition of Peter Garce, William de Caas, Peter de Burgh, William Tongeau, and Arnold Bernaters, merchants of Gascony, praying that, whereas they have freighted in the port of Sandwich a ship called la Cogge Saint Pierre of Bernewe, whereof Peter Gorny is master, with 900 quarters of wheat or thereabouts, to be taken to Gascony and discharged at Bordeaux, and the ship and corn are arrested in that port by virtue of the king's mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of the town not to permit any wheat to pass without the realm, the king will order the release thereof, and grant licence for them to take the wheat to the said city, and because they have found before him and the council John Fynche, John de Studye, John Beaufour and Gaillard Sedas of London as mainpernors that they will discharge the whole of the wheat at Bordeaux and bring back to him in the chancery as soon as they conveniently can letters testimonial of that discharge from the seneschal of Gascony or the constable of Bordeaux, the king has granted them such licence, and he hereby commands all admirals, sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, masters and mariners of ships and others to let the wheat pass without hindrance, notwithstanding any mandate prohibiting the export of wheat or any proclamation or ordinance to the contrary.

By C.

Licence in like terms for John de Barando and Peter de Gray, merchants of Spain, for the passage of 440 quarters of wheat in a ship called la Seint Johan of Vernewe, whereof John Garcey de le Konyen is master, arrested in the port of London by virtue of a like mandate to the mayor and sheriffs of London, on the mainprise of Peter Lopys and John de Notyngham of London.

By C.

Oct. 29.
Tower of London.

Grant to Thomas de Brynchesle, for bringing the first news of the victory given by God to the king's lieges in a battle with the Scots at Durham, of an annuity of 10s. at the exchequer, for life or until he have an equivalent of land or rent.

By p.s.