Membrane 16—cont.

1346.
Nov. 10.
Windsor.

Ratification of the estate of Master John Lecehe as parson of the church of Wrotham on the collation of the archbishop of Canterbury, and prebendary of Terleton, in the church of Salisbury, and of Intelberwe, in the church of Hereford.

By p.s.

Nov. 18.
Tower of London.

Pardon, in consideration of 2½ marks to be paid to the king by Richard Frend of Combes, to the said Richard and Alice, his wife, for acquiring in tail from Edmund de Thorpe a toft, 56½ acres of land, 1 acre of meadow and 2½ acres of pasture in Combes, held in chief, and entering therein without licence; and licence for them to retain the same, with remainders in tail to Hugh son of the same Richard, John, brother of the said Hugh, the younger, to William, brother of the said John, to John, brother of the said William, the elder, to Adam, brother of the said John, to Maud, sister of the said Adam, and to Alice, sister of the said Maud, and reversion to Edmund aforesaid and his heirs.

And the said 2½ marks have been paid to the clerk of the hanaper.

Nov. 20.
Westminster.

Pardon to John Shuldre of his outlawry in the county of Nottingham for non-appearance before the king to answer touching a plea of trespass of John son of Robert Ingram, on certificate by William Scot, chief justice, that he has now surrendered to the Marshalsea prison.

Nov. 6.
Windsor.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum taken by Thomas de Rokeby escheator in the county of York and for 10l. in hand paid to the king, for the alienation in mortmain by Richard de Hasthull, Peter de Hynkeleye, Master Richard de Snoweshull, parson of the church of Huntington, Hamo de Hessey of York, Master Robert de Aberford and Robert de Hotitou, executors of the will of Master Richard de Cestria, late canon in the church of St. Peter, York; of two messuages in York, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said cathedral church for the souls of William de Grenefeld, sometime archbishop of York, the testator, and Vivian and Margery, his father and mother, for the good estate of William, archbishop of York, and the canons of the same church so long as they live, and for the souls of the predecessors and successors, of the archbishop and canons, saving to the king and other chief lords of that fee the due and accustomed services. These messuages are held of the king in burgage by the service of rendering 1d. yearly by the hands of the bailiffs of the city for husgabel and are of the value of 4l. 13s. 4d. yearly. And the said 10l. have been paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 25.
Tower of London.

Whereas the prior and brethren of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England lately of their own free will granted by their letters to Edward de Sancto Johanne, now a convert, because he procured the deliverance of Roger de Stayngrave, a brother of the Hospital, from the prison of the sultan of Babylon (soldani Babilonii) and brought him to England, at very great expense to himself, and also at the request of the king’s father and for a great sum of money then paid by the said Edward to the prior and brethren, a corrody or sustenance and an annual pension of 20 marks out of their house of Clerkenwell and certain of their lands, and whereas the now prior, fearing that when Edward dies he and his house may suffer damage by the grant of such corrody and pension at the request of the king (regiam), has prayed the king instantly for an indemnity in this behalf: the king has granted that the prior and brethren and their successors shall not be charged with a like corrody or pension after the death of the said Edward, nor shall the grant of the same to him prejudice their house as a precedent.

By p.s.