Licence for the prior and brethren of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England to acquire in mortmain lands, tenements and rents, not held in chief, to the value of 20l. yearly, for the support of chantries for the souls of the king's progenitors, kings of England, and of all benefactors of the Hospital.

Whereas Ralph de Normanvill and his fellows, lately appointed to take for the king the moiety of wool in the county of York, granted to him in his twelfth year, took from William de Loteryngton, two sacks of wool at 9 marks the sack, from Thomas del Clay, three sacks of wool at 8 marks the sack, from Adam Tirwhit, six sacks of wool at the same price, and from Joan Tirwhit, three sacks of wool at 9 marks the sack; the king by these presents promises to pay them the sum due for the same amounting to 78l.

By C.

Pardon to Robert son of Ellen de Normanby for the death of John, his son, and Elizabeth, his daughter, lately killed at Colmandale, as it appears by the record of Thomas de Fencotes and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the king's gaol of York, that he killed them when in state of madness.

Pardon to John Brocaze, who from the time when the king assumed the governance of the realm to 6 July last has received in the king's stable war-horses, coursers, hobbies, colts and other horses, as well as spurs, saddles, reins, horse-cloths, bridles and other necessaries for those horses, of the accounts which he should render to the king at the exchequer or elsewhere, of the receipt of the horses and things, or the delivery of them to any persons of the king's gift or otherwise. By p.s.

Licence for 10 marks which he will pay to the king for the alienation in mortmain by Robert Beaupel, 'chivaler,' to Robert de Netelworthy, chaplain, of four messuages, two ferlings, 18 acres of land, 81s. 6d. of rent and a fourth part of six messuages, in Bishops Tauton, Landekeye, Westcotebeaupel, Litelbertford, Niwelond, Trewe and Niweport, to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Nicholas, in the church of St. Paul, Landekeye, for the good estate of the grantor, for his soul when he is dead, and for the souls of Joan, sometime his wife, Robert Beaupel, his father, Alice, his mother, and his ancestors and children.

Devon.

Licence for Hugh de Reppes to buy 1,000 quarters of wheat in England and take the same to Gascony in a ship of his, called la Miyhel, which has been in the king's service from the time of his passage, on condition that he find security before the bailiffs of this town where the wheat is shipped that the same will be taken to the said parts only and that he will bring back into the chancery as soon as possible letters from Gascony testifying to the discharge thereof there, according to the king's proclamation.

By C.

Licence as above, to be taken in a ship of Simon de Byteryng, called la James.

By C.

Licence in like terms for Robert de Beverlaco of Great Yarmouth to take a ship of his called la Edmund, laden with victuals, to Gascony.