prior of St. Neots for that priory while in the king's hands by reason of the war with France; the said John has now given him to understand that before such assignment of the farm to him there was another assignment of 54l. 10s. made thereout to the scholars found at Cambridge out of the king's alms whereby he cannot be satisfied in full of the 160l. For this cause and because he has surrendered the letters patent granting such farm to him, the king now grants that he shall receive the balance of the farm over and above what the scholars receive and likewise the farm of 94l. 10s. due from the alien priory of Eye, likewise in the king's hands by reason of the war.

Mandate in pursuance to the prior of St. Neots.

The like to Nicholas Bond and Henry de Elmham, farmers of the priory of Eye.

Licence for the abbot and convent of Leystone to acquire in mortmain land and rent, not held in chief, to the value of 20l.

Pardon to Richard son of Nicholas Mulward of Tuttebury, at the request of Henry, earl of Lancaster, and for good service done in the earl's company in Gascony, of the king's suit for homicides, felonies, larcenies and robberies, committed by him before 20 November last, and of any consequent outlawries.

Presentation of Philip de Weston, king's clerk, parson of the church of Portland, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of Drexthorp, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of Adam de Wolfe, tenant in chief; on an exchange of benefices with Edward le Chaumberlyn.

Licence for William Clapitus to buy in England 100 quarters of wheat and 200 quarters of oats and take the same to Gascony in a ship called la Katerine of la Rye, whereof Walter Salerne is master, which has been in the king's service from the time of his passage; on condition that he find security before the bailiffs of the town where the corn shall be shipped to deliver the same in Gascony and bring back letters testimonial from there as required by the proclamation.

The like for John Rande, for 60 quarters of wheat.

The like for John Heleward of Kyngeston-upon-Hull, for 600 quarters of wheat, to be taken in a ship called la Seint Johanne of Kyngeston-upon-Hull.
