of the place of his birth, and for his goods and merchandise and his men and servants, trading about the realm as he will.
Renewed by C. because sealed at another time by p.s.

Whereas on 6 May, in his sixteenth year, the king granted to Guy de Bryane the keeping of the lands late of Ralph le Botiller, during the non-age of the heir of the said Ralph, he rendering the extent thereof at the exchequer yearly; as a special grace the king has pardoned the said Guy all arrears of the extent now required of him from that day and grants that he shall have the keeping from now without rendering anything.

Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the exchequer to stay all demands for the arrears and discharge him of the extent.

Grant to John Sey, clerk of Guy de Bryane, of the first void benefice in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Pembroke in Wales being in his hands on account of the war with France, which he or his proctor will accept.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to Robert Chaundos, king's yeoman, the keeping of his castle of Horstan for life, at the accustomed farm; in recompense of the great charges which the same Robert will have to make in his war in staying continually by his side, he has pardoned him the said farm and granted that he shall hold the keeping without rendering anything during the war.

Ratification of the estate of John de Troie, king's clerk, as prebendary of Glencore, in the church of Clone, in Ireland, notwithstanding any right to the same which the king could claim.

Release to Thomas de Rokeby of the rent of 4 marks at the exchequer yearly reserved to the king in the letters patent granting to him the farm of the wapentake of Langebury.

Presentation of John (Thomas in another part of the entry) de la Felde, parson of the church of Boxwell, in the diocese of Worcester, to the vicarage of the church of Aldermanston, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Shirbourn being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Robert Lonewale of Aylesbury.

Presentation of John de Wynwyk the elder, chaplain, to the church of Wynwyk, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of that see.
The like under the name of John son of William de Wynwyk the elder, chaplain.

Whereas Ralph de Normanvill and his fellows, lately appointed to take in the county of York the moiety of the wool granted to the king in his twelfth year, took from Stephen de Neuton of Hundmanby 2 sacks of wool of the price of 8 marks the sack; from Master William de Alberwyk, 1 sack 20 stones of wool of the price of 9 marks the sack; from Gregory de Berkendal, 16 stones of wool of the price of 4s. the stone; from Hugh Thorn of Haby, a sack of wool of the price of 9 marks; from William de Kyrkeby in Ridal, the like; from William Percy of Kyrkeby Moresheyed, a sack of wool of the price of 8 marks; from Thomas le Chapeleys of