Presentation of Master Thomas de Bradewell to the church of Shorham, of the jurisdiction of Canterbury, as is said, and in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the see of Canterbury. By p.s.

Commission to John de Holbourn, Nigel de Luttrewhorth and Geoffrey Goldbeter setting forth that, whereas the king lately appointed them to take by the hands of the said John and the master of the hospital of St. Giles without London, and such as they should depute, the pavage granted for two years from 24 July last for repair of the highway leading from the hospital to the bar of the Old Temple, and a way called 'Pourtepol,' the master for certain causes has not leisure to take part in the collection, and that it is the king's will that the same be levied by their hands and by the hands of such as they shall depute, and the money arising therefrom applied by them in such repairs by view and testimony of the master. It is his will also that lords and ladies, men of religion and ecclesiastical persons be spared in this behalf. By C.

Edmund Daure, parson of the church of Merstham, has made petition to the king that, whereas Robert Segve, late parson of the said church, acquired to him and his successors from the then prior and convent of Christ Church, Canterbury, 2 acres of land in Merstham; from Martin Gervays, 2½ acres of land there; from John atte Wode, 3 roods of land there; and from Thomas le Smyth ¼ acre of land there; and whereas petitioner has acquired in like manner from Nicholas Leticie, 4 perches, 8 feet, of land by 2 perches there, to wit in exchange for like quantities of land there granted by the said Robert to the said prior and convent and their successors, and Martin, John and Thomas and their heirs and by petitioner to the said Nicholas and his heirs, and the said Robert and he entered into the same after the publication of the statute of mortmain without obtaining licence from the king will pardon the trespasses herein; and be for 6s. 8d., which the said Edmund will pay him, has pardoned the trespasses and granted licence for Edmund to retain the premises in mortmain.

Pardon, in consideration of his good service in Gascony in the company of Henry, earl of Lancaster, to Philip de Somerton of the county of Northampton of the king's suit for homicides, &c., committed in England before the passage of the earl to those parts, and of any consequent outlawries. By testimony of the earl.

Whereas the king by letters patent granted to his serjeant at arms, William del Wode, the keeping of the lands late of John son of Henry de Northumberland, tenant in chief, to hold during the nonage of the heir, he rendering the extent of the same lands; taking into consideration the long suit which the said William has made for the recovery of the king's right in regard to the keeping, and the grateful service done by him, the king has granted that he shall retain the custody without rendering anything for the same. By p.s.

Presentation of William de Barstall to the vicarage of the church of Hynkele, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbot of Lire being in his hands on account of the war with France.