Adam, then bishop of Worcester, as commissary of the bishop of Salisbury, on 8 January admitted Peter to the prebend of Horton, commanding the locum tenens of the dean of Salisbury and the sub-dean to assign him a stall and a place in the chapter in right of such prebend and the dean of Haukesbury and Button to induct him into corporal possession of the prebend, in his diocese. And in this way he was admitted and held the prebend until his death nine years afterwards. By C.

April 6. Reading. On the petition of tenants and residents within the fee of the archbishop of York of Beverley shewing that, whereas for their portion of the fifteenth granted to the king in his sixth year, they paid 40l. 20s. by pretext of a recognisance of 100l. made at the exchequer at York by Stephen de Gard and others without their knowledge for the fifteenth granted to the king in his eighth year, which it was ordained should be levied after the same rate, they have since that time been charged with 100l. for such fifteenths, the king grants that the said recognisance shall not form a precedent and that their portion of every fifteenth shall be no more than 50l. By p.s.
