1347.
June 20. Reading. John de Wycombe - - - Waters of the towns of Gloucester, Berkeley, Thornbury, Niewenhain and Lideneye and of the hundred of Blideslowe.
By bill of the butler himself.

April 12. Reading. Thomas de Daggeworth, staying in England, has letters nominating William de Bromleigh, clerk, as his attorney in Ireland for two years. William de Newenham, clerk, received the attorney.

April 20. Reading. Licence for the abbot of Fourneys to bring to England the crops pertaining to manors and granges which he has in Ireland as well as other victuals, for the sustenance of him and his convent, and their household servants, notwithstanding any mandate or ordinance made by the king or others against taking the same without the land of Ireland, and protection for him and his men and servants, ships and boats, bringing the crops and victuals from Ireland, for two years: directed to all admirals, sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, ministers, masters and mariners of ships and others in Ireland.

Licence for Roger de Mortuo Mari, for the better maintenance of his estate in the king's service, to lease for term of years land of his inheritance, whether held of the king in chief or of others, to the value of 100l. yearly.

By p.s.

Pardon to Richard Bataille of Guthmundesleye, in consideration of good service done in Gascony in the company of Henry, earl of Lancaster, and at the request of the earl, of the king's suit for the death of Walter Williamsone Wythsone of Norththorpe, killed before 23 November last; and of any consequent outlawry. By testimony of the earl.

Whereas the king, for 10,000 marks which they have undertaken to lend him in parts beyond the seas, has granted to his merchants, Walter de Chiriton and Gilbert de Wendlyngburgh and their fellows, that they shall receive all customs and subsidies due to him in the ports of England, assignments contained in covenants made between him and them only excepted, until they shall be satisfied of the said sum, and granted also that for making the loan they might enter 20,000l. of goods and true debts due by him to them, whereof they will acquit him, and that an assignment should be made to them of the said 20,000l. on tenths and fifteenths granted to the king, which still remain to be paid, not assigned to others, as in an indenture between the king and the merchants is more fully contained; with their assent and at their request he has granted to Conrad Femol and John Conyngg and their fellows, merchants of Almain, that they, for 20,000 marks which they have lent the said Walter and Gilbert and their fellows towards the loan of 10,000 marks, they shall receive 1 mark on every sack of wool, 1 mark on every 300 wool fells and 2 marks on every last of hides exported from England after Midsummer Day, out of the customs and subsidies so to be received by Walter and the others, until satisfied of the 20,000 marks, and that they may enter 18,000 marks of good and true debts of the king to any persons, whereof they will acquit him, in part satisfaction of