the tenours thereof are given below. Dated at Whytebourn, 28 April, 1847, the third year of his consecration.

Copy of a letter from Robert, bishop of Salisbury, to Adam, bishop of Worcester, reciting a writ, dated 13 June, 4 Edward III, commanding him to assign to Peter de Berkele, king's clerk, a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter in right of the prebend of Horton, which the king has granted to him, and appointing the bishop as his commissary to do all that the business requires. Dated at Clipstone, 1 September, 1390, the first year of his consecration.

Likewise copy of a letter from Adam, bishop of Worcester, to the dean of Salisbury, or his locum tenens, commanding him to assign the same. Dated at Bellum Mariam, 1 April, 1381, the fourth year of his translation.

The like to R. bishop of Salisbury informing him that the dean’s locum tenens has not complied with his order. Dated at London, 23 April.

The like to the dean, or his locum tenens, setting forth that by authority from the bishop of Salisbury he has admitted Peter to the said prebend and commanding him to assign him a stall and a place in the chapter. Dated at Hertliebury, 13 June of the same year.

The like to R. bishop of Salisbury informing him that he has admitted him. Dated as above.

The like, informing him that Peter has been inducted. Dated at Alvechirche, 7 September of the same year.

Licence, for 20L. which he will pay to the king, for John de Frivyle to enfeoff John de Barnton, parson of the church of Little Shelford, of the manor of Little Shelford and the advowson of the church of that town, said to be held in chief, and for him to re-grant the same to the said John and Ellen, his wife, in tail, with remainder to the right heirs of John de Fryvyle.

Whereas the king's merchants, Walter de Chiriton and Gilbert de Wendlyngburgh, at the instant request of the council, lent the king 10,000 marks for the expedition of important business, which he promised to repay at a date long passed, and they are not yet satisfied of any part thereof: in consideration of their losses on account of the non-payment and by pretext of divers other loans made by them to him in his great necessity, he has granted to them 5,000 marks as a gift, and it is his will that they shall receive both these sums out of moneys which the said Walter and the king's merchant, John de Wesenham and his fellows are held to pay at the Purification for wool sold to them by him.

By R. and the whole C.

Presentation of Richard de Wath, parson of the church of Hothum, in the diocese of York, to the church of Barton Hauerd, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the priory of Kenelworth, on an exchange of benefices with Master William de Lymberghe.

Master John Faukes, archdeacon of St. Davids, and Master Griffin de Countyton, archdeacon of Kermerdyn, in the cathedral church of St. Davids, in West Wales, and canons of that church, coming to the king with letters of the chapter announcing the death of Henry, bishop of that place, have made petition for a licence for the precentor and chapter of the church to elect another bishop in his place, and Edward the king's first-born son, whom he lately created prince of Wales, and to whom by charter he
