Commission for one year to Robert de Nessefeld to purvey hay, litter, oats, beans, bread, peas and other necessaries for the keep of the king's great horses and stud north of the Trent in the custody of Roger de Normanvill, king's yeoman, and to take carriage for the same, to be paid for by the sheriff of York by view and testimony of the said Roger; he taking from the sheriff 8d. a day for his wages. Renewed by p.s.

Mandate to John Dengayne of Taversham, escheator in the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon, to deliver the temporalities of the abbey of Thorneye to brother William de Haddon, monk of the house, whose election to be abbot has been confirmed by Thomas, bishop of Ely, and who has done fealty to the king. By letter of the Keeper.

The like to the following escheators in the counties specified:

- John de Coggeshale, Middlesex
- William Croser, Bedford and Buckingham
- Walter Parles, Northampton
- John de Trchempton, Lincoln and Rutland
- John de Wyndescore, Warwick

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the priory.

Mandate to the prior and convent for livery to him of the temporalities which are in their custody by the king's grant, and to intermeddle no further with them.

Protection, during pleasure, for Master Thomas le Cerf, the king's liege man, of the island of Jersey, who lately came to England to complain of manifold oppressions done to him by Ralph de Hermesthorpe, lieutenant of Thomas de Ferers, now keeper of the islands of Jersey, Gernereye, Serk and Aurencye, and to the men of his household by order of the same Ralph and to obtain justice therein from the king and council. The cognisance and decision of his plaint being reserved by the king and council until they shall be more fully informed therein, he is about to return to his own again with the king's licence, and the latter, on his petition, wishes to provide for his security against any injury by the said Ralph or others of his confederacy or household. Directed to the said keeper and his lieutenants. By C.

Appointment until 1 August of John Messager to lodge the cart horses and sumpter horses of the household and purvey hay, oats, litter and other necessaries for them according to the form of the statutes of the making of purveyances.

The like of the following:

- Michael de la March
- Roger de Wanton

The like of John de Barton, serjeant of the household, to lodge the said horses and purvey hay, oats, litter, leather, harness and other necessaries for them.

Pardon, for good service done in Gascony in the company of Henry, earl of Lancaster, to Henry son of Roger Mareschal of Corbridge, citizen of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, of the king's suit for all homicides, felonies, robberies and trespasses against the peace perpetrated by him in England before the passage of the earl to those parts, and of any consequent outlawries. By testimony of the earl.

Grant to Henry de Ingelby, king's clerk, of the prebend of Castre, in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see of Lincoln. By p.s.