Membrane 19—cont.

1347.

their portion for two years of the tenth granted to him by the clergy, to wit, of the last year of the tenth for three years and of the first year of the tenth for two years, in case the war endure for two years; but if not they shall then be held to pay the tenth for such part of the two years as shall remain from the time when the war shall cease. By p.s.

June 26. Presentation of Simon de Wrangel, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Eye, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king’s gift by reason of the priory of Eye being in his hands on account of the war with France.

June 20. The like of Simon Austyn of Catworth, chaplain, to the vicarage of Hermodesworth, in the diocese of London, in the king’s gift by reason of the priory of Hermodesworth being in his hands as above.

July 3. Protection for one year for Walter Labbe, citizen of Bath, born of the power of France, who for twenty years and more has made continual stay in that city, having there domicile, wife and children, and paying scot and lot with the other citizens, now going to divers parts of England to trade, and for some men and servants whom he is sending to the same parts for that cause, his goods and merchandise, lands and possessions. By C.

July 2. Protection in like terms for Giles Leangelachie, citizen of Bath. By C.

July 3. Pardon to Richard Iddeleye of his outlawry in the county of Middlesex for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer touching a plea of the prioress of the church of St. John the Baptist of Halywell, on certificate by John de Stonore, chief justice, that he has now surrendered to the Flete prison.

July 5. Licence, in consideration of 6 marks, which he will pay to the king, for the alienation in mortmain by Richard de Clodeshale of Bermyngeham of five messuages, 10 acres of land and 10s. of rent, in Bermyngeham, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary, in the church of St. Martin, Bermyngeham, for the good estate of the same Richard and Alice his wife, for their souls when they are dead and for the souls of the father, mother and ancestors of Richard. Warwick.

And the said 6 marks have been paid to the clerk of the hanaper.

Whereas the king to be certified of what debts he owed to his kinsman, Henry, earl of Lancaster, by accounts rendered in the exchequer as well of wool delivered to him for his deliverance of late when arrested beyond the seas for the king’s debts and of other wool and moneys delivered to him in part satisfaction of the king’s debts to him, as for wages and expenses laid out by him in Gascony, commanded the treasurer and chamberlains to certify him of the same in the chancery, and they have certified that 9,074l. 8s. 9d. are due to the earl by such accounts beyond sums previously paid to him on account of such debts; the king promises to pay him the said sum. By C.

The prior of Kertrimell, staying in England, has letters nominating Adam de Pulton, his fellow-canonical, and William de Bredekyrk as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

John de Haryngton, ‘chivaler,’ received the attorneys by writ.