seal, commanded the justiciaries to find the said lands and rents with all convenient speed, by advice of the justiciaries and others of the council he has granted to the said John the manors of Blakecastel and Babeston, escheats by the forfeiture of Richard de Maundevill, knight, which are extended as of the yearly value of 42l. 18s. in part satisfaction of the first grant. By C.

July 17. Protection with clause rogamus, for two years, for the master and brethren of the house and order of the brethren of the knighthood of St. Mary of Bethlehem, in the city of London, and their attorneys, collecting alms in the churches. The sheriffs, bailiffs and others are to arrest any unauthorised person collecting alms in their name.

July 11. Writ de intendendo in favour of William de Stanhope, whom John Marreys, king’s yeoman, the alnager, has appointed to discharge the office in his stead, pursuant to the power lately granted to the said John because he is constantly attendant at the king’s side. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 13.

Power to Sir Robert de Stratton, canon of Chichester, and Master Richard de Saham, learned in the law, to treat for a marriage between Edward, prince of Wales, and Leonora daughter of Alfonsus, king of Portugal and Algarves. [Fidera.]

The like; and to agree on a time for Leonora to come to England and as to the place to which she shall come. [Fidera.]

[Patents following tested by the keeper of the realm.]

Inspeximus of letters patent of Thomas, late bishop of Lincoln, reciting that, in pursuance of a bull of pope Clement VI, dated at Avignon, xij Kal. Mai, commanding him to reduce the taxation of the Augustinian monastery of Thornholm, if it should prove on inquiry that that taxation was excessive, as the prior and convent complained, he had caused inquisition to be made and found that this was true, and that the churches of Appelby, Risby, Messyngham, Bliton, Laghton, Cadenay, Orreby, and a mediety of the church of Feriby, in the deaneries of Manlak, Coryngham, Candelshowe and Jordeburgh and some temporalities written within had been appropriated to the monastery of ancient time, that the taxation of these beyond the sum of 188 marks 7s. was excessive and that from this time forth he reduces the taxation to that sum, according to the particulars following, to wit the churches of Appelby and Risby, at 8 marks each; Messyngham at 9 marks; Bliton at 8 marks; Laghton at 7½ marks; Cadenay, with a pension of 20s. due from the same to the chapter of Lincoln, at 20 marks; Orreby, with a pension of 5 marks due from the same to the abbot and convent of Hagneby, at 8 marks; the mediety of the church of Feriby, with a pension of 5½ marks due from the same to the prior and convent of Bolyngton, at 8 marks; temporalities in the deaneries of Lincoln, Coryngham, Manlak, Aslakhowe, Jordeburgh, Walseherof, Candelshowe, Grymesby and