pledged his lands in England to fit himself out for that service, as also to help towards the great ransom at which he is assessed for his deliverance, and for the relief of the estate of Christiana, his consort, of 20l. yearly out of the farm of the alien priory of Totteneys, co. Devon. By p.s.

Licence, in consideration of 40 marks which she will pay to the king, for Margaret late the wife of John de Lovayn, who held of the king in chief, to marry whomssoever she will of the king's allegiance. By C. Essex.

Grant for life, for long service rendered in the office of the king's change in the Tower of London, to Simon de Berkyn, king's goldsmith, of all liberties, quitances and free customs which the king's ministers of that change have by royal-charters. By p.s.

Whereas Ralph de Normanvill and his fellows, lately appointed in the county of York to take the moiety of the wool there granted to the king by the communality of the realm, took from Henry son of Robert de Holm a sack of wool of the price of 8 marks, from Robert Thornef of Swaunton and Robert Oustiby, executors of the will of John de Wykham, two sacks of wool of the price of 100s. the sack, and from John de Bellerby of Manfeld a sack of wool of the price of 9 marks; the king by these presents promises the said Henry, Robert, Robert and John to cause payment to be made of what is due to each of them in respect of the price of the same wool amounting in the whole to 21l. 6s. 8d.

On the petition of William, vicar of the church of Bekyngham, Alan de Fery, Henry de Fery and Robert de Parys of Bekyngham praying that, whereas the king by letters patent, dated 4 May, in his fifteenth year, granted licence for Walter de Fery of Bekyngham to assign a messuage, a toft, lands and rents in Bekyngham 'in the Clay' to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in Bekyngham church for his good estate, for his soul after his death and for the souls of his ancestors, which grant did not take effect in the lifetime of the same Walter, and whereas Walter granted the premises to Hugh Gerland of Bekyngham, chaplain, and the petitioners for them to give effect thereto, they may have licence to assign the same in mortmain to a chaplain to celebrate divine service as above for the good estate of the king and his children, and the said Hugh, William, Alan, Henry and Robert, for their souls when they are taken from this world, as well as for the souls of John Darcy 'le piere,' the said Walter and the ancestors and heirs of Hugh; the king has granted the licence prayed for. And be it remembered that the first letters were surrendered in the chancery on the said 20 July.

Mandate to Thomas Pychard, escheator in the county of Hereford and the march of Wales adjacent to that county, to deliver the temporalities of the see of St. Davids to Master John de Thoresby, who has been appointed by a papal provision to be bishop of that place in the room of Henry, deceased, and who of his own will has openly and expressly renounced all words in the said bull prejudicial to the king or his crown, humbly submitting himself to the king's grace herein. The king has therefore taken his fealty and restored the temporalities to him as an act of grace and not by virtue of the bull aforesaid. By p.s.

The like to Geoffrey de Wychyngham, mayor of London and escheator in the same city.

The like to John Gogh, guardian of the temporalities during the voidance of the see.

Writ de intendiendo to the tenants of the see.