Aug. 10. Notification that the king has revoked the letters patent of protection for one year, dated on 6 June, in favour of one William, pretended parson of the church of Sandyacre, because it has been shewn to him on behalf of Master Roger de Northburgh that that church is a prebendal church in the church of Lichfield, and that he is lawful prebendary thereof, and he complains that by colour of that protection the said William is trying to get in the fruits and profits and to seize the goods of the prebend and otherwise annoy him; and because the letters emanated in the ordinary course of the chancery and not of the king's certain knowledge.

Aug. 8. Licence for John Giffard, king's clerk, master of the hospital of St.
Leonard, York, on his petition shewing that insasmuch as he has applied all such moneys as he could conveniently raise from wool, corn and other things pertaining to the hospital by way of loan or other lawful means in the redemption of two corrodies long alienated from the hospital as well as in the relief of the estate of the hospital and in increasing the number of poor therein and meeting other unusual charges at present falling on the hospital, he has not wherewith to pay the wool now required of him for the king, to sell two corrodies or liveries for life in the hospital such as a brother, chaplain, or a sister wearing the habit of the hospital receives.

July 31. Appointment of Adam de Bispeham to have the custody of the lands and goods of Robert de Dalton, 'chivaler,' now imprisoned in the Tower of London for felony, for such time as these remain in the king's hands, on condition that he find sustenance for Robert, his wife and children, out of the said goods during that time.

Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff of Northampton and the escheator there.

The like to the sheriff of Lancaster.

Aug. 8. Whereas the king on 18 January, in his fourth year, by charter granted inter alia to Edward de Bohun, his kinsman, the manors of Uphaven and Sende, co. Wills, to hold in tail male with knights' fees, advowsons and other appurtenances, and on 26 January, in his sixth year, granted licence for him to enfeoff Thomas de Aldon of the same, and for the latter to re-grant the manors with the appurtenances to him and Margaret, daughter of William de Roos, to hold to them and the heirs of the same Edward; and whereas, after the death of the said Margaret, who survived Edward, the king commanded livery of the premises, which were taken into his hands on account of her death, to be made to Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford, brother and heir of the said Edward, who now holds them; at the request of William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, and for 2,000 marks released by him of money due to him from the king by bills of the wardrobe, of the time when he stayed on his service in Brittany, the king releases to the earl of Hereford all right of reversion pertaining to him by the form of the grant to the said Edward by the charter aforesaid, willing that the earl hold the manors with the appurtenances to him and his heirs by the services whereby the same were held before they came into the hands of the late king as escheats by the forfeiture of Hugh le Despenser the elder; willing also that the said earl of Northampton surrender bills in discharge of the king to the said sum of 2,000 marks.
