WHEREAS the king by letters patent granted to John de Coupeland, for his bravery at the glorious victory over the Scots at Durham, where he took prisoner David de Bruys, who had caused himself to be named king of Scots, an annuity of 500l. out of the customs of the ports of London and Berwick on Tweed until he should provide him and his heirs with an equivalent of land or rent, and afterwards in part satisfaction of that grant granted to him (1) the manor of Coghull, co. York, a moiety of the manor of Kirkeby in Kendale, co. Westmoreland, and a moiety of the town of Ulreston, co. Lancaster, which came into the king's hands as escheats by the death of William de Coucy, as of the value of 23l. 8s. 9d., saving to the king the park and several wood above 'le Bradewode' wood, within the island of Wynandermere, a moiety of the wood called 'Richemerfeld,' of the wood of Crosthwayt called 'Brendwode,' and of the wood of Aynerholme, and saving also knights' fees and advowsons of churches pertaining to the manor and moieties aforesaid, and (2) the manors of Morholme, Warton, Carneford and Lyndeheved, co. Lancaster, escheats as above, to hold at will as of the value of 78l. 5s. 11d. yearly; in satisfaction of the remaining 190l. 5s. 8½d. of the annuity, he now grants that the said John and his heirs shall receive this out of the customs in the said port of London. By p.s. Vacated because surrendered and he and Joan, his wife, have other letters patent of all that is contained in these letters patent in survivorship, which are enrolled on the Patent Roll of the twenty-ninth year in the month of May.

Membra 6—cont.

Aug. 10. Reading. Whereas the king by letters patent granted to John de Coupeland, for his bravery at the glorious victory over the Scots at Durham, where he took prisoner David de Bruys, who had caused himself to be named king of Scots, an annuity of 500l. out of the customs of the ports of London and Berwick on Tweed until he should provide him and his heirs with an equivalent of land or rent, and afterwards in part satisfaction of that grant granted to him (1) the manor of Coghull, co. York, a moiety of the manor of Kirkeby in Kendale, co. Westmoreland, and a moiety of the town of Ulreston, co. Lancaster, which came into the king's hands as escheats by the death of William de Coucy, as of the value of 23l. 8s. 9d., saving to the king the park and several wood above 'le Bradewode' wood, within the island of Wynandermere, a moiety of the wood called 'Richemerfeld,' of the wood of Crosthwayt called 'Brendwode,' and of the wood of Aynerholme, and saving also knights' fees and advowsons of churches pertaining to the manor and moieties aforesaid, and (2) the manors of Morholme, Warton, Carneford and Lyndeheved, co. Lancaster, escheats as above, to hold at will as of the value of 78l. 5s. 11d. yearly; in satisfaction of the remaining 190l. 5s. 8½d. of the annuity, he now grants that the said John and his heirs shall receive this out of the customs in the said port of London. By p.s. Vacated because surrendered and he and Joan, his wife, have other letters patent of all that is contained in these letters patent in survivorship, which are enrolled on the Patent Roll of the twenty-ninth year in the month of May.

Aug. 22. Gloucester. Signification to B. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, of the royal assent to the election of John de Ibestok, monk of the house of Burton on Trent, to be abbot of that place. By the keeper.

Aug. 22. Reading. Licence for the alienation in frank almoin by Thomas Wake of Lydel to the Friars of the order of the Holy Cross of a toft and 10 acres of land in the moor of Blakehowe in Farndale, for them to found a house of the order there and build an oratory and dwelling-houses. By p.s. Vacated.

July 30. Reading. Licence, at the request of John Darcy, for the alienation in mortmain by Master Simon de Islep and Nicholas de Bukeland to the prioress and nuns of Hevenynges of an acre of land in Wilmersleye and the advowson of the church of the same town, held of Queen Philippa as of the honor of Pontefract; and for the appropriation of the church by the prioress and nuns. By p.s. Vacated.

Aug. 10. Reading. Grant to John de Coupland of the manor and moieties specified in the first grant referred to above, to hold until further order. By p.s. Vacated. Mandate in pursuance to Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, in whose custody the same are at farm, for livery thereof to him. Vacated.

Aug. 14. Reading. Protection with clause rogamus, for two years, for the lepers conversant within the parish of St. Giles without the bar of the Old Temple, London, very many of whom depend for their subsistence on charity, and for their messengers and proctors, collecting alms in churches.