Whereas the abbot of Neuhous of the Premonstratensian order, on account of debts incurred in obtaining at the court of Rome certain privileges affecting the jurisdiction and common defence of the order in England, which some ecclesiastical persons were striving to infringe, has been granted an indulg that he shall have a subsidy to be collected from the other houses of the order within the realm, the king on his petition has granted licence for him to collect the same and by the authority aforesaid to inflict ecclesiastical censures on those refusing to pay it, and to send beyond the seas a sum not exceeding 40L. in defence of the said privileges and pleas pending out of them as he will, provided that he do not pay any apport to foreign parts beyond the 40L. contrary to the proclamation.

By p.s.

Presentation of Oliver de Dynelay to the church of Brampton by Dyngele, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of St. Neots being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Licence for Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, to fell and carry away from the woods pertaining to the manor of Walbery, within the king's forest of Hatfield, which she holds in dower, as much wood as she shall require every year for housbote, haibote and fuel, without view and livery of the ministers of that forest.

By p.s.

Ratification of the estate of Nicholas de Yftele, king's clerk, as parson of the church of Westwell on the collation of John, archbishop of Canterbury.

By p.s.

Writ of aid during pleasure for Walter de Wyght, deputed by Roger de Cloune, Queen Philippa's treasurer, to take wheat, wine, ale, beeves, muottons and other animals, as well as oats, litter and other victualls for her household, and carriage for the same, as often as required.

By testimony of the treasurer.

By letters patent the king lately granted licence for the prior and convent of Lenton to demise their manor of Dunston at farm and sell a portion of their tithe of sheaves and hay in High Peak for a time, and now on petition made to him on behalf of the prior, praying that whereas they have a portion of a tithe of lead in High Peak of some value, but cannot sell this because there is no mention of it in the said letters, they may have licence to sell or lease the same for sixteen years from Michaelmas next to William de Amyas, the king has granted the licence prayed for.

By C.

Ratification of the estate of Lambert de Panlesholt as prebendary of Chalk, in the church of St. Edith, Wylton, which prebend he has obtained justly, as the king learns; notwithstanding any judgement rendered for the king in his court thereon, or execution of such judgement made, or any right of the king by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of Wylton being lately in the hands of Edward I.