1347.

Sept. 27.

Woodstock.

Appointment, until Christmas, of John Messager to purvey, pursuant to the form of the statutes in that case published, hay, oats, litter, bread and other necessaries for the king's horses, and carriage for these victuals where necessary.

By K.

The like of the following:

Elias de Brewode.

Thomas de Morele.

Appointment of Michael de la Marche to lodge the cart-horses and sumpter-horses of the king's household and make purveyances for them as above.

The like of John de Wemynaton.

Sept. 21.

Worcester.

Whereas the abbot and convent of North lately acquired to them and their successors from Edward de Stradelyng, knight, an acre of land with appurtenances in the town of St. Donats in Glamorgan, and the advowson of the church of that town and now hold the church as appropriated to their house, without having obtained the king's licence, and whereas the land and advowson on that account are forfeited to him; he, for 20 marks, which the abbot and convent will pay, has pardoned the trespasses herein and granted licence for them to retain the land and advowson as well as to hold the church as appropriated.

By p.s.

Sept. 3.

Gloucester.

Whereas the king is bound to his merchants of the society of the Bardi in Florence in the sum of 23,082L. 3s. 10d. of clear debt by their account lately begun before Robert de Wodehous and his fellows and afterwards rendered before the treasurer and barons of the exchequer, in which account there is no mention of gift or remuneration, as by a certificate of the said treasurer and barons appears, and has promised to pay the same; and whereas afterwards at the suit of the merchants, shewing that 8,386L. 15s. of their debt was due by them to Master Paul de Monte Florum, he promised to pay that portion of the debt to the latter, leaving a balance of 10,786L. 8s. 10d. to be paid to them, as by divers letters patent appears; the merchants have now made petition for him to make a further payment for them to the same Master Paul of 1,873L. 6s. 8d. out of the residue of the debt still due to them, and to satisfy them of the remaining 18,386L. 2s. 2d. and he, on surrender by them of the letters patent of the 19,786L. 8s. 10d. promises to pay them the said 18,386L. 2s. 2d. He has also caused like letters patent to be made for the said Master Paul of the 1,373L. 6s. 8d. and for the said Master Paul of the 1,373L. 6s. 8d.

By p.s.

Vacated because surrendered and there are divers other letters patent of the final balance due to the said merchants contained in the foregoing letters, to wit in favour of —— Cielhus, called Clarenus Douissigni Angiollini de Florenzi, of 28£. 11s. 6d. and two parts of a sterling, and in favour of James Alberti and Albert Lapy of the Alberti and their fellows of Florence, of 88L. 11s. 9d. and in favour of the merchants of the society of the Bardi of the remaining 17,989L. 14s. 10d. severally enrolled below.

The letters obligatory in favour of the said Master Paul referred to at the end of the above entry.

Aug. 27.

Evesham.

Ratification of the estate of William de Bradele, king's clerk, as parson of the church of Eynesford, in the diocese of Rochester, on the collation of the archbishop of Canterbury.

By p.s.

Oct. 6.

Woodstock.

Presentation of Thomas de Bynstre, parson of the church of Bradeleye, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, to the vicarage of the church of