Membrane 27—cont.

1347.

Oct. 20.
Westminster.

Grant, at the request of Richard Talbot, to John son of Thomas Talbot, of the keeping of the castle of Alone, with a fishery pertaining to the king in the water of Loghry, to hold during pleasure with the accustomed fee, in case none other have estate in that keeping by previous grant of the king for term of life or years, or during good behaviour. By p.s.

Mandate to the justiciary of Ireland to cause him to have livery of the same by indenture.

The like to the chancellor and the treasurer of Ireland.

Oct. 23.
Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas de Somerton, parson of the church of Stepeleston, to the prior and convent of Chetwert, in satisfaction of 20s. of the 10th yearly of land and rent which they have the king's licence to acquire, of a messuage, three and a half virgates of land and 8 acres of meadow, in Middleston, of the clear yearly value of 13s. 4d. as appears by inquisition taken by John de Alveton, escheator in the county of Oxford.

Oct. 23.
Westminster.

Protection until Christmas for Julian Morelet and John Endormy, coming as envoys to Scotland from France to announce to certain of that land the truces entered upon between the king and those of France; directed to all the king's sheriffs, bailiffs, ministers and lieges in England and Scotland.

Westminster.

Appointment of William de Caille to lodge the cart-horses and sumpter-horses of the household in the counties of Kent, Surrey and Sussex, and to purvey hay, oats, bread, litter and other necessaries for them in those counties according to the form of the statutes in that case made.

By counsel and testimony of William de Hugate, clerk.

By letters patent the king lately granted to the provost and brethren, chaplains of the chantry of Cotherstok, the tithes of the wastes and assarts within the forest of Rokyngham, so long as these be not within the bounds of any parish with a parish church, and the provost and brethren have now made petition that, inasmuch as the words 'wastes' and 'assarts' are not in use in the ecclesiastical court, he will declare the grant more fully in this respect: the king, taking into consideration that the chantry is founded for the souls of his progenitors and heirs, for his good estate and for his soul when he is dead, grants that the petitioners and their successors shall have for ever all manner of tithes arising from all wastes, assarts and other places which by him, his progenitors or heirs, have been or shall be brought into cultivation or granted to be brought into cultivation or put in severalty or other profit, as well in woods, lawns, hays and parks as elsewhere within the right and ancient limits of the said forest, so long as these be not within the bounds of any parish with a parish church.

Oct. 20.
Westminster.

Grant, for good service done beyond the seas, to Richard de Strelleye, king's yeoman, that he may fell and make his profit of the underwood in his wood of Wothale, within the king's forest of Shirewode. By p.s.

Nov. 6.
Westminster.

Richard, bishop of Ferns in Ireland, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert de Grymeston and James de Birmyngham as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

David de Woll[ore] received the attorneys.