king, for the alienation in mortmain by him to the prior and convent of St. Mary's, Worcester, of a messuage and 2½ acres of land in Alveston, held of the said prior and of the clear yearly value of 2s. in exchange for 4 acres of land in Yngen, held of the bishop of Worcester and of like value, granted to him in fee: saving to the chief lords their services. Warwick.

And the ½ mark has been paid to the clerk of the hanaper.

Exemption for life of John de Staunton from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, coroner, escheator or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

Pardon to William, bishop of Winchester, for acquiring in mortmain from Gilbert de Benham 15s. 4¾d. of rent in Suthlake and Waltham St. Laurence, co. Berks, and entering into the same without licence; and licence for him to retain the same to him and his successors.

By p.s.

Gift to the warden and scholars of the king's hall at Cambridge to give effect to the king's promise by letters patent to find money for them to apply in building a dwelling-place at Cambridge, of the 20l. which the preceptor of the house of 'la Maneleyne' of Lokhay, co. Derby, of the order of the knighthood of St. Lazarus of Jerusalem, is bound to render to the king yearly by reason of a tribute which he used to make yearly to the superior house of the order in France and which now pertains to the king on account of the war with France, to hold from 30 July last for such time as the temporalities of such religious aliens shall remain in his hands on account of that war.

By p.s.

Pardon, in consideration of his good service in Gascony in the company of Henry, earl of Lancaster, to John Raulyn of the hundred of Wrotham of the king's suit against him for any homicides, felonies or trespasses perpetrated in England before the passage of the earl to those parts, and of any consequent outlawries.

By testimony of the earl.

Licence, for 20s. which John de Staunton, 'chivaler,' will pay to the king, for the same John and Alice, his wife, to enfeoff John Wythorn, clerk, and William Wyle of the manor of Reynham, co. Essex, held in chief, and for them to re-grant the same to the said John and Alice and the heirs of John. Because at another time for the same manor for such licence he made fine, the first time for 10 marks and the second time for 5 marks.

Pardon to Roger Darcy, escheator of Ireland and constable of the castle of Dublin, of all manner of accounts and arrears of accounts relating to those offices, for which he has accounted and is quit in the Great Roll of the exchequer of Ireland. Pardon to him also for all excesses, trespasses, prises and extortions done by him by colour of the said offices.

Ratification of the estate of Master Reymund Pelegrini, king's clerk and special nuncio of the pope in England, as prebendary of Gillyngham in the church of the nuns of Shaftesbury.

Whereas the king for good service to his father and himself by James le Botiller of Ireland, whom he advanced to be earl of Ormond, and for the maintenance of the estate and honour of earl, granted to him for life the regality and other liberties, with knights' fees and all other things
