which the king had in the county of Tipperary, in Ireland, the four pleas of arson, rape, 'forstall' and treasure trove and the profits of the Cross (de crocet) only excepted, and these have now come into his hands by the death of the earl; as a special grace he has granted the same to James, the earl's son and heir, now earl, for his life.

Mandate in pursuance to the justiciary of Ireland.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John, archbishop of Canterbury, to the warden of the chantry ordained by him in the church of Stratford-on-Avene, in satisfaction of 6s. 8d. of the 20l. yearly of land and rent which he has the king's licence to acquire, of seven messuages in Stratford-on-Avene, of the clear yearly value of 3s. 4d. as appears by inquisition taken by John de Wyndesore, escheator in the county of Warwick; saving to the chief lords their services.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted in fee to John de Stryvelyn the manor of Hoton, an escheat by the forfeiture of Andrew de Murref, and lands in Paxton which came into the king's hands by the death of Peter de Heleye; the said John has now made petition that inasmuch as by inquisition taken by William de Kelleseye, chamberlain of the town of Berwick on Tweed, it has been found that the towns of Kellowe and Wetherbourn pertain to the manor aforesaid and Wetherbourn is charged with 20 marks yearly to the hospital of God's House, Berwick-on-Tweed, the king will be pleased to grant him in fee these towns of Kellowe and Wetherbourn and the king has granted the same to him as prayed, to hold by the services whereby they were held before they escheated to him.

Presentation of John de Chilharn, warden of the chantry at the altar of St. Mary in Chilham church, in the diocese of Canterbury, to the vicarage of the chapel of Sheldwych, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury; on an exchange of benefices with Robert Durand.

Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas de Baddeby, clerk, going to Spain on the king's service in the company of his daughter, Joan de la Tour.

He also has letters nominating William de Louches and William de Catesby as his attorneys in England for one year.

J. de Sancto Paulo received the attorneys.

The like protection for him under the name of Thomas de Baddeby, precentor of the church of St. Chad, Lichfield, and prebendary of Bishophope Ichynton in that church, and parson of the church of Bishophope Ichyngton.

Exemplification, at the request of the men of West Wales and South Wales, of letters patent, dated 7 February, 9 Edward II, in their favour.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Aston and Robert son of Richard de Elmeleye to the abbot and convent of Leycestre of six messuages, 60 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and 3s. of rent in Quenyburgh, Burstall, Belegreve and Reresby, which messuages and land are of the clear yearly value of 18s. 4d. as appears by inquisition taken by John de Wyndesore, escheator in the county of Leycestre, to hold as of
