1346.
Nov. 18.
By Calais. Whereas Thomas de Brende, 'marchaunt,' was lately indicted of having brought within the realm and put into circulation false money called 'of Lucenburgh,' and whereas it has been testified before the king that such indictment was false and malicious, the king has pardoned the said Thomas the suit of his peace and whatever pertains to him in this behalf, and any consequent outlawry. By K.
1347.
Jan. 15.
By Calais. Grant to the king's clerk, Master John de Curia of Ghent, of a pension of 200 florins with the shield at the exchequer yearly, until the king provide him with the said sum at some place elsewhere, or with a benefice befitting his state. By K.
- Jan. 1.
By Calais. Appointment of William de Clynton, earl of Huntingdon, to arrest ships for the king's service along the coast of the counties of Kent and Essex, and elsewhere, as shall be expedient, and to select and array men at arms and archers as well as mariners and others, and compel them to come with all speed to him at Calais; with power to attach all persons resisting him herein and commit them to prison, to be delivered only by special mandate of the king. By K.
The like of Thomas Spygurnel and Philip de Whitton.

MEMBRANE 2.

1346.
Nov. 20.
By Calais. Pardon, at the request of the king's clerk, Master John de Thoresby, to Richard Brisbank of Northferiby and Alice, his wife, of the king's suit for all trespasses against the peace in England, whereof they are appealed, and of any consequent outlawries of him and waivers of her. By K.
- Dec. 6.
By Calais. Whereas John Boseville, lately in the king's army by Calais, is said to have been killed by John son of Michael, otherwise called 'Vandaer Up,' who has made satisfaction to the friends of the first named John with respect to the suit pertaining to them for his death, the king, at the request of the good men of the town of Ypres, has pardoned him the suit of his peace and whatever else pertains to the king for the said death. By K.
- Dec. 10.
By Calais. Pardon to William de Eycon, who was lately accused of bringing into England false money of Lucenburg, because the king's merchants of the staple of wool dwelling at Brugges and the burgomasters, échevins and consuls of the same town have certified the king by letters that the accusation is false and malicious and that they repute the said William as a faithful merchant, quite innocent of the said fault. By K.
The like to Robert de Sadelworth.
Licence for John Grey of Retherfeld to crenellate his dwelling-places of Retherfeld Grey, co. Oxford, and Sculcotes, co. York.
- Dec. 14.
By Calais. Pardon, for good service in the war of Scotland, to Philip Syueker of Swaneshe of Gouer of the king's suit for the death of Robert Carteresson of Gristhwayt, 'flesshewere,' &c. By K.
- Dec. 16.
By Calais. Grant to Thomas son of Henry de la Spicerie of Penreth of the bailiwick of Penrethwarde, in the king's forest of Ingelwode, to hold, during pleasure, as others have held the same. By K.
- Dec. 20.
By Calais. Gift, in return for his homage and fealty, to John de Foresto of 600 florins with the shield, to be paid by equal portions at the Purification and Easter next.
