1347.

Membrane 20—cont.

remuneration of good service done by him, the bailiwick of Labourde, with all rights, issues, profits, table money (alboreyage), moneys and other appurtenances whatsoever, pertaining to the king by reason of the bailiwick, on condition that he be held to pay for the said bailiwick to the constable of Bordeaux 10 marks of silver yearly, by half-yearly payments at Easter and Michaelmas, and commanding the constable to admit him to possession of the bailiwick notwithstanding any previous grant or assignment by the seneschal of the same to any other; commanding also that for his warrant and discharge herein the constable shall have a copy of these letters patent under the seal and counterseal for contracts used in Bordeaux; and that in testimony thereof he as keeper and executor of the said seal and counterseal to these presents has set to the same. By K.

April 10.
By Calais.

Pardon to John de Rithe, knight, of the king's suit against him for all homicides, felonies, robberies, larcenies and trespasses as well against the peace of Edward II as of the peace of the present king and of any consequent outlawries; pardon to him also of all trespasses of vert and venison in any of the king's forests and parks as well in the time of the late as of the present king. By K.

April 9.
By Calais.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately committed to Walter de Jernemutha for life all issues of the hanaper of writs judicial as well in the King's Bench as in the Common Bench, subject to his answering to him for 550 marks thereof, to wit 250 marks by the hands of the clerk of the hanaper of the chancery and 300 marks in discharging debts of the king to others yearly; in consideration of his good service the king has granted that he shall have for life as a gift from him 50 marks yearly of the said farm, to be allowed by the said clerk. By K.

April 6.
By Calais.

Pardon, in consideration of good service done on this side the sea, to John de Sholdham of the king's suit against him for homicides, robberies, felonies, larcenies, firings, rapes of women, receiving of felons, oppressions and all trespasses whatsoever against the king or people, and of any consequent outlawries. By K.

April 12.
By Calais.

Grant, for good service to the king and Queen Philippa by Sandrina de la Mote, wife of Roger le Archer, to the said Roger and Sandrina of the manor of Willesham, co. Suffolk, which has escheated to the king by the forfeiture of Edmund de la Mote, because he is an adherent of his adversary of France against him, to hold to them and the heirs of Sandrina by such services as the manor was held by before it came into the king's hands. By K.

April 13.
By Calais.

Appointment of Anthony Usus Maris, William de Flisco, canon of York, and Antoninus de Flisco, cousin of the same William, as the king's proc- tors and special envoys to hire for him twelve galleys manned and equipped, to come to Flanders with all speed; and to agree with the doge and council of Genoa on the satisfaction to be made for damages to Genoese by Englishmen and for mutual trade between Genoese and those of the districts of Genoa and the English and other subjects of the king. [Federa.]

April 10.
By Calais.

Protection for one year, at the instant petition of Nicholettus Conkarini, consul of the merchants of Venice at Bruges, and the king's merchant, Nicholas Bartholomei, for merchants of Venice when coming to trade in England and Ireland. [Federa.] By K.