recognition, or inquisitions to be taken before justices in eyre or other justices or ministers of the king, from appointment as justice, mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, and from being compelled to collect or receive taxes, talliages, wool, tenths, fifteenths, or other quota, grants or aids for the king's use, or to render accounts thereof or to take inquisitions in the premises, against his will.

By K.

Pardon to the prior and convent of St. Martin's, Dover, for acquiring in mortmain from Ralph Basset of Drayton, a messuage in Canterbury, held of the king in burgage, and entering therein without his licence; and grant that they may retain the same.

Ratification of the estate of William de Bromley as parson of the church of Dungarvan, in Ireland, by the presentation of John, archbishop of Cashel.

Ratification of the estate of William Tylie as parson of the church of Shirfield, in the diocese of Winchester, notwithstanding any right which the king might have therein by reason of voidance of the priory of Merton or any other cause.

Grant, in regard to his homage and fealty done to the king and his good service promised in the future, to Robert de Nameur and to his heirs doing the like homage and fealty, of 1,200 florins with the shield, or the value thereof in other money current in England, out of the issues of the customs in the port of London, until he or they receive an equivalent in land or rent.

Exemplification, at the request of Vitalis de Glayrak of Bayonne, of letters patent under the seal then used by the king, dated 5 March, 14 Edward III, granting to him in fee a plot of land in the water of Bayonne, called the island of 'Balay,' by the church of St. Bernard, Bayonne, at the rent of 6s. of money current there.

By K.

Mandate to the seneschal of Gascony and the constable of Bordeaux to cause livery of the land to be made him pursuant to the said letters patent.

Grant to Robert Tyffour and Maud, his wife, that they and their heirs for ever shall have a market every Monday and a fair on the eve, the day and the morrow of Corpus Christi yearly, at their manor of Hacumby, co.
Lincoln. Witnesses:—Edward, prince of Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, Thomas de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, Robert de Ufford, earl of Suffolk, Richard Talbot, steward of the household, and others. [Charter.]

Whereas the king by charter has granted to Henry, earl of Lancaster the town, castle and place of Bergerac, inasmuch as these are on the frontier of his enemies he grants that during the war there shall stay in the town and castle a hundred men of arms and two hundred servants on foot at his wages for the garrison of these; on the understanding that such men and servants be attendant unto the seneschal of Gascony and when necessary go with him on the king's service, leaving always a sufficient number for the garrison in the town and castle. The constable of Bordeaux is commanded to pay their wages so long as they be in Gift to Thomas de Holand, who has surrendered to the king the count of Eu, constable of France, lately taken by the said Thomas as a prisoner