Whereas the king’s merchants, Walter de Chiriton and Gilbert de Wendlingburgh, for themselves and certain merchants, have undertaken to lend the king 40,000 marks, to have payment of the said 40,000 marks as well as of 30,000 marks besides which he owes to them or to others, which 40,000 marks and 30,000 marks he has assigned to them on his customs and subsidies of wool and on the tenths and fifteenths respectively, as is more fully contained in indentures between him and them, he, with the assent of the same Walter and Gilbert and their fellows, grants that Nicholas Bertholeneu, merchant of Lucca, and Eoger de Chastillion, merchant of Florence, shall have one third part of the said bargain between him and them according to the form which Nicholas and Roger have agreed on with the said Walter by indentures of covenant sealed in Bruges on 12 February last and confirmed by the king, in pursuance whereof the king assigns to Nicholas and Roger the third part of the customs and subsidies on wool passing from England from the Purification last, saving the 20s. on every sack assigned to Henry Picard and his fellows, and the half mark on every sack assigned for fees of certain persons, contained in such indentures, until they be fully satisfied of one third part of the 40,000 marks aforesaid; and besides this he, with the like assent, has assigned to them the third part of the 30,000 marks aforesaid on the tenth and fifteenth, one moiety at Michaelmas next and the other moiety at the Purification following, and besides this, for a sum of money which they shall undertake to pay to certain persons for Walter and Gilbert, he assigns to them 9,000 marks on the same tenth and fifteenth at the Purification next, for which they shall have writs and tallies and warrant in the name of them or of those whom they will depute for themselves. In case of default of payment of any of the assignments of the tenth and fifteenth, they shall receive the same on the third part of the customs and subsidies aforesaid. (French.)

To appease discords between some men of Flanders and the king’s men staying in the island of Caedzand on account of arsons and robberies, the king undertakes to build a church and cloister for thirteen brethren of the Carthusian order in that island, and a hospital for seven dames in the county of Flanders, without that island; and to endow the same at the discretion of the men of the three good towns of Flanders, Ghent, Bruges and Ypres; and at his request Edward prince of Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, binds himself to accomplish this with him. (French.)

Promise by the king, pursuant to the marriage contract between Lewis, count of Flanders, Nevers and Bethle, and Isabel, his eldest daughter, to pay as her dower 25,000 pounds of Paris, money of Flanders, of rent yearly, until they obtain peaceable possession of the county of Ponthieu, of Montreuil, of the Provoste Chastel; and the sum of 400,000 deniers d’or with the shield, at terms expressed in letters hereof under the great seal. (French.)

Bond of James Barry, John Barry and Robert Barry to Walter Whithers in the sum of 1,000L sterling to be paid in London at Midsummer. Dated at London, 2 August.

And be it remembered that the same James, John and Robert came into the king’s chancery at Calais on 9 August in the year aforesaid and acknowledged the said writing.
