
Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Wylughby the Westminster, of the advowsons of the churches of Overtoynton, Kirkeby and Ei with the chapel of Spillesby annexed to the last named church, v churches with the chapel are extended as of the value of 40L 13; yearly, to a master chaplain and twelve other chaplains to cele divine service as he shall order in the chapel, in honour of the V Mary, for the good estate of the king, his consort, and his children as well as of the said John, his consort and his children, and for souls when they are dead: and for the appropriation of the churches chapel by the master and chaplains.

By p.s. and by fine of 100L paid in the hands of Westminster.

MEMBRANE 39.

Jan. 28. Whereas by letters patent, tested by the king's son, Lionel, then kee of England, on 24 June last, the king granted to Geoffrey de Styuecle bailiwick of the chief serjeanty of the county of Cork in Ireland, dut pleasure, and whereas the said letters have been accidentally lost at being shewn in the said county and on that pretext the men of bailiwick refuse to be attending unto him; the king for his indemn herein grants that the said Geoffrey shall hold the bailiwick according the form of the first commission thereof and take the fees and ot appurtenances of the bailiwick from the said 24 June.

By Westminster.

Grant to Master Gilbert de Welton, king's clerk, of the prebend Osbaldwyk, in the church of St. Peter, York, in the king's gift by reas of the late voidance of the see of York.

Mandate in pursuance to the archbishop of York.

The like to the dean and chapter of the said church.

Jan. 30. Appointment of Thomas de Breouse, Gilbert de Imworth, John Macklesfeld and Henry de Kerseye as justices in eyre for this turn of pleas of the forest in the counties of Northampton and Buckingham.

Feb. 5. Whereas the king by writ of privy seal lately commanded the treasurer and barons of the exchequer to come to an account with Robert d Burghcher of all debts or receipts required of him by summons of th exchequer by way of loan or otherwise, making him due allowance according to the tenor of the king's letters patent and writs under the great seal made to him, and in case it should happen that by such account it should be found that he was not indebted to the king to caus general letters of acquittance to be made to him, and whereas it is now intimated to him on behalf of the said Robert that, although he has accounted in full up to the present date and by that account it is found that he is not in the king's debt but the king is indebted to him in large sums, as by an indorsement of the king's letters aforesaid would more fully appear, the treasurer and barons have not yet made him the king's letters of acquittance according to the tenor of the king's mandate, for which he prays redress; the king by these presents acquits the said Robert of all manner of debts and receipts required of him by way of loan or otherwise to this date and likewise of the reward which he has now received for his progress on his service to the parts of Spain, provided that he be held only to give an account of that which he has now received for his wages for half...