Inspeximnns and confirmation to the abbot and convent of Thorney of the following:—

1. Composition, dated 1241, Wednesday in Easter Week, between D. abbot of Thorney, and W. prior of Ely, to settle dissensions between them over the marsh of Whitlesh', granting for them and their successors that, from Thorne[e] Cross as far as Eldemuster from the shore (hora) of the great river towards the alder wood called 'Aldegore,' there should remain to the abbot and his men of Stangrund and their successors 70 perches of the marsh of Whitlesh', each perch of 24 feet, to hold from Easter to Michaelmas, within which term it should not be lawful for the prior to enter to feed his cattle or animals, or to mow or to carry anything away, but if the hay be carried by Michaelmas the prior and his successors and their men of Witlesh' and the abbot and his successors and their men of the same town shall have free ingress into the 70 perches to feed their cattle and animals, and at the beginning of
