Melchebourn and his fellows, of the issues of the customs in England from Midsummer in the seventeenth year to Midsummer in the nineteenth year, that 182l. of the said 200 marks yearly have been paid to him and so there is due to him by the king for that time 84l. 18s. 4d. but of the time before the grant of the said customs to the said Thomas and his fellows, the said John was satisfied of the 200 marks yearly aforesaid.

Presentation of Thomas de Aldham to the church of St. Martin of Grovill le Joeven, in the island of Jereseye, in the diocese of Coutances, which is in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbot of St. Sauveur le Vicomte being in his hands for certain causes.

Presentation of John de Hedyndon to the church of St. Ouen, in the same island, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbot of Mont St. Michel (Sancti Michaelis in Monte Tumba in periculo maris), being in his hands as above.

Grant to Robert Cousyn of the office of spigurnel of the chancery to hold as Henry de Acum, deceased, held it, with such wages and fees as the latter had.

Whereas the king is bound to William de la Pole the elder in 706l. 18s. 1d. and 20l. 10s. 2d. received from him as loans for the expenses of the household on 4 February and 20 February last respectively; with the assent of the merchants to whom he has granted the customs and subsidies in England, he has granted that the said William shall receive by his own hands or the hands of his attorneys, by view and testimony of the collectors in the port of Kyngeston-upon-Hull, 80s. of the subsidy on every sack of wool, 80s. on every 300 wool-fells and 60s. on every last of hides, on the first wool, hides and wool-fells exported thence after Michaelmas next until he be satisfied of the said 7272. 8s. 3d.

By bill of the receipt of the exchequer.

Protection and safe conduct, for one year, for John de Cotes the elder of Ravenserod and Henry de Selby of Ravenserod, merchants passing from place to place in England to trade, and for their goods.

Protection for one year for Edmund Bouler, chancellor of the church of Wells, prosecuting divers pleas in the king's courts, and for his attorneys therein.

On the petition of Walran de Lambeton, late yeoman of Master John Wawayn, constable of Bordeaux, deceased, shewing that whereas he had long stood in the king's service within seas as well as beyond seas in the company of the said John without any remuneration having been made to him by John and he cannot now have any out of his goods because these have taken into the king's hands for debts and accounts due by him at his death, of the time when he was constable of Bordeaux, the king will grant him the grange of Essewell, in the bishopric of Durham, which John held at his death of the demise of the prior of Fynkhale for a term not yet expired; the king has granted that he shall hold the same for the remainder of the term.

Protection and safe conduct until Trinity for Henry Dymmok charged by the king and council to receive Adam de Askham, a prisoner in the Flete, from the keeper of that prison and bring him to the parts of the county of York to expedite some difficult business affecting the king there, and to bring him back to the said prison when the business is completed.