Grant to John de Chestrefeld, king's clerk, of the first prebend in the said free chapel.
Mandate to the dean of the chapel to admit him.

The like grant and mandate for the undermentioned:
John de Maydenstan, with respect to the second prebend.
John de Bukyngham, with respect to the third prebend.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Thomas de Verdon, king's yeoman, to the office called 'le haywardwyk' of Wyngham and of Bukhalt, the collation to which pertains to the king by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury, he taking in the office such wages as others have used to have in it; provided that if any other have such estate in the office he shall not be impeached by pretext of this appointment. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the guardians of the temporalities of the archbishopric.

The like to Bartholomew de Burghersh the elder, guardian of the parks and chases of the archbishopric during voidance, with respect to what pertains to the office in the park of Bukhalt.

Whereas the king's yeoman, William Nichol, with certain men at arms and archers and 100 casks of wheat, is going by the king's command to Gascony for the munition of the king's town of St. Jean d'Angelin, and proposes to ship the wheat in a ship called la Mariot of Hampton, whereof Luke Gaugeour is master, the king commands all admirals, sheriffs, masters and mariners of his ships and others to cause him to have the said ship and a little ship called la Petre of Hampton to take him, the said men and wheat to Gascony, and to be counselling and aiding unto him in the purveyance of the wheat.

Signification to J. bishop of Lincoln, of the royal assent to the election made in the conventual church of Welhou by Grymesby, of brother Henry de Aylyngton, a canon of the order, to be abbot of that place.

Geoffrey de Styuecle, to whom the king has granted the serjeanty of the county of Cork, in Ireland, going to Brittany on the king's service, has letters nominating Master William de Eppeworth as his attorney in Ireland for one year. David de Woll[ore] received the attorney.

Presentation of Gilbert de Sutton to the church of Tamone, in the diocese of Ferns, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of that see being in his hands for certain causes: directed to G. bishop of Ferns.

MEMBRANE 3.

Appointment of a dean and twelve canons secular to serve in the chapel of St. Stephen the Protomartyr, in Westminster Palace, which the king has caused to be completed at his royal charges, and grant to them in frank almoine of his great inn in the street of 'Lombardestrete,' London, and of the advowsons of the churches of Dewesbury and Wakefeld, in the diocese of York. [Feedera.]

Licence for them and the college of the chapel to appropriate the said churches.

Appointment of the king's clerk, Master Michael de Northburgh, archdeacon of Suffolk, as proctor to prosecute the business of the appropriation before William, archbishop of York, and his chapter.