Licence, in consideration of 5 marks which John Gemys of Stacheden will pay to the king, for the said John to enfeoff Roger de Milton a Robert de Suthewyk of two parts of the manor of Stacheden, which is set to be held in chief, and of the reversion of the third part of that manor which Robert Mordant and Joan, his wife, hold as her dower; and to them to grant one moiety of the two parts to John son of John Gemys, Christiana, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, with remainder to the right heirs of the said John Gemys, and the other moiety and the reversions aforesaid to the same John Gemys and Eleanor, his wife, in survivorship with remainders to the same John son of John and Christiana and the heirs of their bodies, and to the right heirs of John Gemys.

And the 5 marks have been paid in the hanaper.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to Peter de Brew 40£ at the exchequer yearly until he should find him an equivalent land or rent for life, and afterwards in part satisfaction thereof granted him 18£ 10s yearly out of the hundred of Saunford, co. Suffolk, whereas he has surrendered the said rent praying the king to grant it to William de Botevillain, the king in answer to his prayer has granted the same to the said William for life.

Presentation of John de Huntyngdon, chaplain, to the church of Chelmyngton, in the diocese of Norwich.

Presentation of Hugh de Clyfford, chaplain, to the dean and chapter of St. Ethelbert, Hereford, for admission to the vicarage of the prebend of Lyre, in their church, on the nomination of the same dean and chapter, to whom it pertains to nominate a parson to be presented by the king by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbot of Lyre being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Mandate to Robert Russel, escheator in the county of Wilts, to deliver the temporalities of the monastery of Ivenchurch to brother James Grundewell, whom Robert, bishop of Salisbury, has provided to be prior because that in the vacancy of the monastery by the death of the last prior all the other canons except the said James died, whereby no election of prior could be held, and whose fealty the king has taken.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the priory.

Writ of aid for one year for Nicholas de Kenyngton and Thomas Levelyf, poulterers of Queen Philippa, who are charged by John de Leukenore, steward of her household, to provide necessaries for the office of the poultry, and carriage for the same. By testimony of the steward.

Whereas the king lately granted to Thomas de Bradestan the farm of 500 marks due by the proctor of the abbot of Fécamp for the lands of the abbot in England during the war with France, and then, in lieu of 236£ 7s. 3d. of the farm of certain of the said lands which were committed to Eleanor de Bello Monte, now the wife of Richard, earl of Arundel, granted to him the farms of the priories of Derhurst, extended at 110£, and of Newent, extended at 130£ yearly, on condition that he answered for the surplus; and whereas afterwards on his petition alleging that 84 marks of the 500 marks were in arrear the king granted him the manors of Chiltenham and Sloghtre, co. Gloucester, of the same abbot, as of the value of 84 marks yearly, and then on 20 November last because those manors were committed to the abbot's proctor with other lands, granted him the said 84 marks by the hands of the proctor wit
