Membrane 8—cont.

Appointment of Thomas Cok to the custody of the lands late of George de Mountboucher and Isabel, his wife, tenants in chief, with the knights' fees, advowsons of churches and other appurtenances of the custody, during the nonage of the heir. Grant to him also of the marriage of the heir to the value of 200 marks yearly, and so from heir to heir, and it is the king's will that he hold 100 marks of the said 200 marks in recompense of land of that value yearly lately granted to him by letters patent, and the other 100 marks with the marriage as aforesaid in return for 1066l. 18s. 4d. released by him to the king of true debts due by the king because of a gift made to him as well as for wages of him and his men for the time when they were in the king's service in Gascony. If the said Thomas die before any heir come of age, half of the lands, representing the first 100 marks, shall revert at once to the king, and in case all the heirs die in their nonage or other impediment due to no fault of his intervene, whereby he cannot have his profit of the lands and marriage as intended, the king promises to indemnify him.

By [K.] & C. and by p.s.

Aug. 27. Westminster.

Ratification of the estate of William son of Hugh de Scoter as parson of the church of Glatton.

By p.s.

Presentation of Walter Teyntour of Calne to the chantry of St. Mary, in the church of Chippenham, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Farleigh being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Whereas the king by charter lately granted to his son Edmund de Langele the castles, manors, towns and lands beyond the Trent late of John de Warenna, earl of Surrey, deceased, and afterwards by reason of the nonage of the same Edmund by letters granted to Queen Philippa the keeping of the premises until Edmund should be of age to take it upon himself; and whereas at the suit of Joan de Bares, countess of Warenne, late the wife of the earl, he afterwards assigned to her dower out of the same valued at 200l. yearly: to recompense his said consort, while she has charge of his said son, and then his son for the lands so assigned in dower, he has granted that she and afterwards he shall have the said sum at the exchequer yearly from the date of such assignment.

By p.s. and by information of the treasurer.

MEMBRANE 7.

Aug. 27. Westminster.

Presentation of Thomas atte Welle of Southereyk to the church of Cilcestre, in the diocese of Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of William de Cusance, tenant in chief.

Appointment, during pleasure, of the king's yeoman Thomas de Verdon to hold the office called 'le haywardwik' of Wyngam and Bocholte, which it pertains to the king to confer by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury, he taking therein such wages and fees as others have had in the office: provided that no other have such estate in the office.

By p.s.

Mandate to the guardians of the archbishopric during the voidance to admit him to the office and pay him such wages and fees.

Mandate to Bartholomew de Burgherssh the elder, guardian of the parks and chases of the same archbishopric in the voidance, to permit him to have that which pertains to the office in the park of Bocholte.