MEMORANDUM 22.

April 1. Croydon.

Ratification of the estate of William ap Griffith ap Elider as vicar of the church of Lonteylou Vaur, notwithstanding any right of the king therein by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of St. Davids.

By K.

April 12. Westminster.

Pardon to William Ferour, alias Smyth, of Cavenby, for his good service in going beyond the seas in the king’s company and staying there in his service, of the king’s suit for the death of Andrew Nore of Atherby, killed before 30 October, in the thirteenth year, whereof he is indicted or appealed whether by the name of ‘Ferour’ or ‘Smyth,’ and of any consequent outlawries.

By K. and by p.s. remaining on the files of the thirteenth year.

Appointment of Richard de Rothele, king’s clerk, surveyor of the king’s works in the castle of Wyndesore, to take stonemasons, carpenters and such other workmen as are required for the same (workmen already engaged for his works at Westminster, the Tower of London and Dertford excepted), also stone, timber and other necessaries for the works, to bring back the workmen lately employed on the works at the castle, who have withdrawn without the king’s licence to find by inquisition in all counties of England whether timber, stone, or other necessaries bought for the works have been carried away or removed to a distance, and if so to recover the same, to buy all that is necessary for the works, and to sell for the king’s use all branches and other residue of trees bought for the works; he taking for his wages 12d. a day when resident there and 2s. a day when attendant upon the king’s business elsewhere.

By K. on the information of the treasurer.

Memorandum that the commission preceding was sealed in May in the twenty-eighth year, and in the same year was sent to the exchequer in the estreats.

April 8. Westminster.
